When Memory Dies

Jane E. Stebbins

When Memory Dies:

When Memory Dies A. Sivanandan, 2007-10-18 Haunting with an immense tenderness Unforgettable JOHN BERGER Profoundly moving Evening Standard A brilliant and moving first novel Times Literary Supplement I m recommending When Memory Dies to everyone Arthur C Clarke The Buddha taught that to live is to experience suffering Few family sagas especially first ones have captured this aspect of suffering and so many other truths in as lyric a fashion as When Memory Dies Through the viewpoints of three generations of a Sri Lankan family taking the reader from 1920 through the 1980s Sivanandan explores a culture destroyed first by colonization then through the ethnic divisions that are released when the country achieves independence The family which lives at a level of poverty that makes survival a constant struggle must also balance love for one another with a deep love of their homeland Without bending to romanticism or proselytization the author evokes a compelling and very human story of a lost country It is a vision as beautifully told as it is unrelenting in its devotion to truth In the process the work also supplies a rich historic background to the often underreported news accounts of the massacres and upheavals in Sri Lanka Winner of the Sagittarius Prize Shortlisted for the Commonwealth Writers Prize

When Memory Dies Ambalavaner Sivanandan, 1997 When Memory Fades: The Silent Epidemic of Alzheimer's Disease Subhadeep Aditya, 2025-12-01 About the Book When Memory Fades The Silent Epidemic of Alzheimer's Disease is a powerful blend of science storytelling and human experience revealing the devastating reality of a disease that is quietly reshaping the future of healthcare worldwide Through the fictional yet deeply realistic journey of Dr Arvind Sharma a neuroscientist suddenly forced to confront the very condition he once studied Subhadeep Aditya brings readers into the molecular battlefield where neurons die memories disappear and families watch their loved ones slowly slip away This book simplifies complex neuroscience without losing scientific accuracy offering readers a complete understanding of how Alzheimer's begins progresses and ultimately ends a life It explores failures and breakthroughs in drug development the global economic burden the emotional toll on caregivers and the urgent need for better prevention diagnosis and support systems More than a medical overview this is a call to action a reminder that behind every statistic is a person struggling to hold on to their identity while the world around them slowly becomes unrecognizable This book will make you think It will make you feel And most importantly it will make you care

Memory, Nationalism, and Narrative in Contemporary South Asia J. Edward Mallot, 2012-09-25 This book investigates the ambivalent responses to the opposing compulsions of memory and forgetting in cultural production in South Asia Mallot reveals how writers such as Salman Rushdie Michael Ondaatje and Amitav Ghosh indict nationalism's sins by accessing and encoding the past No Country Sonali Perera, 2014-01-28 Sonali Perera expands the discourse on working class fiction by considering a range of international noncanonical texts identifying textual political and historical linkages overlooked by Eurocentric scholarship Her readings connect the literary radicalism of the 1930s to the feminist recovery projects of the 1970s and the anticolonial and postcolonial fiction of the 1960s to today's counterglobalist struggles building a new portrait of the twentieth century's global economy and the experiences of the working class within it Perera considers novels by the Indian anticolonial writer Mulk Raj Anand the American proletarian writer Tillie Olsen Sri Lankan Tamil Black British writer and political journalist Ambalavaner Sivanandan Indian writer and bonded labor activist Mahasweta Devi South African born Botswanan Bessie Head and the fiction and poetry published under the collective signature Dabindu a group of free trade zone garment factory workers and feminist activists in contemporary Sri Lanka Upsetting the North South divide Perera creates a new genealogy of working class writing as world literature and transforms the ideological underpinnings casting literature as cultural practice

Abiding by Sri Lanka Qadri Ismail, Ismail demonstrates that the problems in Sri Lanka raise fundamental concerns regarding the relationship between democracies and minorities He redefines the concept of minority not as numerical insignificance but as conceptual space where distinction without domination can be achieved

Assembling Ethnicities in Neoliberal Times Nimanthi Perera-Rajasingham, 2019-10-15 Assembling Ethnicities in Neoliberal Times Ethnographic Fictions and Sri Lanka's War argues that the bloody war fought between the Sri Lankan state and the separatist Tamil Tigers from 1983 to 2009 should be understood as structured and animated by the forces of global capitalism Using Aihwa Ong's theorization of neoliberalism as a mobile technology and assemblage this book explores how contemporary globalization has exacerbated forces of nationalism and racism Nimanthi Perera Rajasingham finds that ethnographic fictions have both internalized certain colonial Orientalist impulses and critically engaged with categories of objective gazing empiricism and temporal distancing She demonstrates that such fictions take seriously the task of bearing witness and documenting the complex productions of ethnic identities and the devastations wrought by warfare To this end Assembling Ethnicities explores colonial era travel writing by Robert Knox 1681 and Leonard Woolf 1913 contemporary works by Michael Ondaatje Romesh Gunasekera Shobasakthi Dharmasiri Bandaranayake and Thamotheerampillai Shanaathanan and cultural festivals and theater including vernacular performances of Euripides's The Trojan Women and women workers theater The book interprets contemporary fictions to unpack neoliberalism's entanglements with nationalism and racism engaging current issues such as human rights the pastoral Tamil militancy immigrant lives feminism and nationalism and postwar developmentalism
