The Battle of Spring Hill, Tennessee John Shellenberger, 2012-11-03 More than twenty five years have passed since I began to collect the materials from which this pamphlet has been evolved. As a substantial basis to begin with, I was an eye witness of all the fighting in the vicinity of Spring Hill that amounted to anything from the time Forrest attacked the 64th Ohio on the skirmish line until Cleburne's Division recoiled from the fire of the battery posted at the village. Since I began collecting, I have neglected no opportunity to increase my stock of information by conversation, reading, or correspondence. I have twice revisited the battlefield. I have the Government volume containing the official reports all of which I have carefully studied Among my correspondents on the Union side have been Generals Stanley Wilson Opdycke Lane and Bradley besides many others of lesser rank I am as confident from their letters that my paper would have the approval of those named who are now dead as I am sure it has the approval of General Wilson to whom a manuscript copy was submitted for criticism Knaptons of Wescoe Hill, 1638-1962 Thomas Grady Barnes,1963 The Battle of Spring Hill, Tennessee Read After the Stated Meeting Held February 2d, 1907 John K.
