Great Directors at Work David Richard Jones,1986 The subject of this book is theatre directing in four internationally famous instances The four directors Konstantin Stanislavsky Bertolt Brecht Elia Kazan and Peter Brook all were monarchs of the profession in their time Without their work theatre in the twentieth century so often called the century of the director would have a radically different shape and meaning The four men are also among the dozen or so modern directors whose theatrical achievements have become culture phenomena In histories theories hagiographies and polemics these directors are conferred classic stature as are the four plays on which they worked Chekhov s The Seagull Brecht s Mother Courage and

Her Children and Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire have long been recognized in the theatre and in the study as masterpieces. They are anthologized, quoted, taught, parodied, read and produced constantly and globally. The culturally conservative might question the presence of Marat Sade in such august company but Peter Weiss's play stands every chance of figuring in Western repertoires, classroom study and theatrical histories until well into the twenty-first century. In their quite different ways these are all classics of that Western drama which is part of our immediate heritage.

Stanley Kubrick Directs Alexander Walker, 1972. This book tells how Stanley Kubrick makes films, how he translates his own vision of a story into cinematic terms, finding original ways to use camera angles and camera movement, lighting, composition, depth and other techniques, and how he edits to achieve jarring juxtapositions, suspense and surprise, a heightened sense of time and a perfectly crystallized total concept. The book also shows how his films relate to one another. The more than 350 photographs illustrate the visual flow of Paths of Glory, Dr. Strangelove, 2001: A Space Odyssey and A Clockwork Orange, as well as the methods used in Killer's Kiss, The Killing and Lolita.

Fifty Key Theatre Directors Shomit Mitter, Maria Shevtsova, 2005. Fifty Key Theatre Directors covers the work of practitioners who have shaped and pushed back the boundaries of theatre and performance. The authors provide clear and insightful overviews of the approaches and impact of fifty of the most influential directors of the twentieth and twenty-first century from around the world. They include Anne Bogart, Peter Brook, Lev Dodin, Declan Donnellan, Jerzy Grotowski, Elizabeth LeCompte, Joan Littlewood, Ariane Mnouchkine. Each entry discusses a director's key productions, ideas and rehearsal methods, effectively combining theory and practice. The result is an ideal guide to the world of theatre for practitioners, theatregoers and students.

The Complete Stanislavsky Toolkit Bella Merlin, 2007. A practical, hands-on guide to Stanislavsky's famous system and to his later rehearsal processes for actors, directors, teachers and students. From the author of Beyond Stanislavsky: The Complete Stanislavsky Toolkit, this book collects together for the first time the terms and ideas developed by Stanislavsky throughout his career. It is organized into three sections: Actor Training, Rehearsal Processes and Performance Practices. Key terms are explained and defined as they naturally occur in this process. They are illustrated with examples from both his own work and that of other practitioners. Each stage of the process is explored with sequences of practical exercises designed to help today's actors and students become thoroughly familiar with the tools in Stanislavsky's toolkit.

Stanislavsky and the Method Charles Marowitz, 1964. The Stanislavsky Technique: Russia Mel Gordon, 1988. Stop reading about Stanislavsky and wondering what it's all supposed to mean. Meet the master and his disciples as they evolve new techniques and exercises in a workshop atmosphere over a quarter of a century.
