

10 WAYS TO TO DETACH

WITHOUT LOSING YOUR MIND

by Michelle Farris, LMFT

1. Don't give advice unless asked.
2. Leave the room if you can't be quiet.
3. Stop focusing on what they are doing.
4. Let them experience their own choices.
5. Trust that you don't have to fix it.
6. Remove the kids if it becomes unsafe.
7. Don't nag them about their responsibilities.
8. Compliment what they ARE doing well.
9. Breathe, how important is it?
10. Only help when you are asked.

Surviving Addiction:

Survivors of Addiction Mary Addenbrooke,2015-10-23 Addiction is something that affects many different people from all walks of life and can be difficult for a therapist to treat and the client to conquer In this book fifteen people who have formerly had serious addictions speak about their experiences Survivors of Addiction draws on first hand narratives to provide an overview of how and why people become addicted and explores what happens after the addiction is left behind Divided into four sections it covers being caught up in addiction how and why users stop being addicted the early days after surviving addiction long term outcomes By considering psychodynamic and Jungian perspectives as well as the clinical vignettes this book examines the process of recovery from addiction It will be key reading for therapists clinicians and healthcare workers who encounter addictions in their day to day professions and will also be of great interest to those who are or have been addicted and their families

Surviving Alex Patricia A. Roos,2024-05-17 In 2015 Patricia Roos s twenty five year old son Alex died of a heroin overdose Turning her grief into action Roos a professor of sociology at Rutgers University began to research the social factors and institutional failures that contributed to his death Surviving Alex tells her moving story and outlines the possibilities of a more compassionate and effective approach to addiction treatment Weaving together a personal narrative and a sociological perspective Surviving Alex movingly describes how even children from good families fall prey to addiction and recounts the hellish toll it takes on families Drawing from interviews with Alex s friends family members therapists teachers and police officers as well as files from his stays in hospitals rehab facilities and jails Roos paints a compelling portrait of a young man whose life veered between happiness anxiety success and despair And as she explores how a punitive system failed her son she calls for a community of action that would improve care for substance users and reduce addiction realigning public health policy to address the overdose crisis

Federal Probation, 1989 Family Addictions Charles R. Norris, Jr., 1990-08 Inside Dope Rufus Davis, 2019-06-21 Have you ever had an in depth talk with someone who has been addicted to drugs Listened to them talk about the utterly inescapable irresistible need to use drugs no matter what the consequences Heard the depravity and self loathing they felt while committing acts of an immoral and often violent nature in pursuit of the drugs they can't resist

Inside Dope Surviving Addiction is author Rufus J Davis Jr's searingly honest look at the world of drug addiction It weaves a myriad of subjects related to addiction recovery and life together while methodically walking you through the entire cycle of addiction and recovery Inside Dope is the story of the struggles of one addict and the people he met during his labyrinthine journeys on the roller coaster of addiction It reveals how the families and loved ones of those at various stages of addiction and recovery are also impacted and Davis does not shrink from providing a crystal clear picture of what can happen to the lives of those the addict loves the most Yet ultimately Inside Dope is an inspiring beacon of encouragement beckoning through the fog to offer hope and a blueprint for recovery from the pernicious blight of addiction Rufus J Davis Jr was born in 1948 on the west side of Chicago Illinois and currently resides on the east coast He finished high school and attended college in Chicago before entering the US Air Force as a Titan II nuclear missile launch crew member for four years before being honorably discharged in 1973 He went on to sell life insurance and own a liquor store and nightclub and an auto repair business He retired from his full time job as a supervisor for a national passenger railroad in 2015 Our Marriage Sue Pruett,2010-09 Karl possessed enormous stubbornness which was both an asset and a liability in his quest for sobriety Paul Stuenkel former counselor at Menninger Hospital and St Francis Recovery Sue Pruett is living proof that the 12 Steps of Al Anon Alcoholics Anonymous Narcotics Anonymous and the loving people in those programs really work for healing No matter how deep the disease has devastated a person or their family there is hope there is help and there is health available Dr Ronald Lee Cobb former counselor at Valeo Mental Health Center Menninger Hospital and current Clinical Director of Hope Help Health in Holton KS I am so honored to have known Karl and Sue They help me remember why I have spent over 25 years working in the addiction field Even though Karl was the identified patient the family needed help and recovery too I pray that their story will give others the hope and belief that recovery is possible Joyce Markham LSCSW former counselor St Francis Recovery As amazing as it seems I did not know about Karl s drinking for many years as he was a master of deception Living with the ups and downs of the roller coaster of addiction was a painful process for all of us Even once he started facing his problem he had multiple rehab treatments and many relapses Both family and friends urged me to give up on him thinking he was never going to embrace sobriety Thankfully a miracle happened and this man who stumbled so many times found his sobriety He became the man I always believed in and shared his lessons unselfishly with others for years I was naive and gullible enough to believe everything he told me When I realized the truth I was stubborn enough never to give up Oh by the way I loved him with all my heart The end was better than any fairy tale This is our story and this is our truth Treating the Chemically Dependent and Their Families Dennis C. Daley, Miriam S. Raskin,1991 Chemical dependency For many families it has become an all too common problem be it drug or alcohol related What is needed is a practical resource that clearly outlines effective forms of intervention and treatment for chemically dependent individuals and families Answering this need is Treating the Chemically Dependent and Their Families Written by practitioners for practitioners this informative volume presents the major issues relevant to addiction and recovery from the perspectives of the addict the addict s family and the practitioner Replete with numerous case studies contributors discuss the consequences of addiction assessment of addiction problems recovery issues treatment resources relapse prevention effects on the addict s family and issues in family recovery For practitioners students or family members themselves searching for answers to this tragic problem you can t find a better resource than Treating the Chemically Dependent and Their Families A valuable resource for the rehabilitation counselor Many of the topics such as professional enabling apply to the counselor who is in the field of chemical addiction One of the strengths is an overview of all the aspects of chemical addiction Each chapter has an impressive list of references The chapter on relapse prevention is encouraging The book is well organized which leads to its usability Journal of Applied

Rehabilitation Counseling Offers abridged yet complete and up to date information Individual chapters are written by acknowledged professionals in the field and reflect their areas of expertise The prose of Daley and Raskin s book is clear Their use of language is unpretentious and straightforward The ideas presented are orthodox they are in keeping with current thinking throughout the field Professional Counselor Daley and Raskin do an excellent job covering the broad range of information and treatment issues that are needed to be understood in order to help individuals and families affected by substance abuse and addiction Contemporary Psychology The Women's Desk Reference Irene M.
