Church Explorer's Handbook Clive Fewins,2005 A fully illustrated pocket guide to UK churches and their contents A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies John Lee,2017-08-14 Provides a detailed map of contemporary critical theory in Renaissance and Early Modern English literary studies beyond Shakespeare A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is a groundbreaking guide to the contemporary engagement with critical theory within the larger disciplinary area of Renaissance and Early Modern studies Comprising commissioned contributions from leading international scholars it provides an overview of literary theory beyond Shakespeare focusing on most major figures as well as some lesser known writers of the period This book represents an important first step in bridging the divide between the abundance of titles which explore applications of theory in Shakespeare studies and the relative lack of such texts concerning

English Literary Renaissance studies as a whole which includes major figures such as Marlowe Jonson Donne and Milton The tripartite structure offers a map of the critical landscape so that students can appreciate the breadth of the work being done along with an exploration of the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is must reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of early modern and Renaissance English literature as well as their instructors and advisors Divided into three main sections Conditions of Subjectivity Spaces Places and Forms and Practices and Theories A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies Provides an overview of theoretical work and the theoretical informed competencies which are central to the teaching of English Renaissance literary studies beyond Shakespeare Provides a map of the critical landscape of the field to provide students with an opportunity to appreciate the breadth of the work done Features newly commissioned essays in representative subject areas to offer a clear picture of the contemporary theoretically engaged work in the field Explores the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Offers examples of the ways in which the practice of a theoretically engaged criticism may enrich the personal and professional lives of critics and the culture in which such critical practice takes place Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England Anne M. Myers, 2013-01-01 Our built environment inspires writers to reflect on the human experience discover its history or make it up Buildings tell stories Castles country homes churches and monasteries are documents of the people who built them owned them lived and died in them inherited and saved or destroyed them and recorded their histories Literature and Architecture in Early Modern England examines the relationship between sixteenth and seventeenth century architectural and literary works By becoming more sensitive to the narrative functions of architecture Anne M Myers argues we begin to understand how a range of writers viewed and made use of the material built environment that surrounded the production of early modern texts in England Scholars have long found themselves in the position of excusing or explaining England's failure to achieve the equivalent of the Italian Renaissance in the visual arts Myers proposes that architecture inspired an unusual amount of historiographic and literary production including poetry drama architectural treatises and diaries Works by William Camden Henry Wotton Ben Jonson Andrew Marvell George Herbert Anne Clifford and John Evelyn when considered as a group are texts that overturn the engrained critical notion that a Protestant fear of idolatry sentenced the visual arts and architecture in England to a state of suspicion and neglect Know it All, Find it Fast Robert John Duckett, Bob Duckett, Peter Walker, Christina Donnelly, 2008 There is a queue the phone is ringing the photocopier has jammed and your enquirer is waiting for a response You are stressed and you can feel the panic rising Where do you go to find the information you need to answer the question promptly and accurately Answering queries from users is one of the most important services undertaken by library and information staff Yet it is also one of the most difficult least understood subjects There are still very few materials available to help frontline staff often paraprofessional develop their reader enquiry skills This award winning sourcebook is an essential guide to where to look to find the answers quickly It is designed as a first point of reference for library and information practitioners to be depended upon if they are unfamiliar with the subject of an enquiry or wish to find out more It is arranged in an easily searchable fully cross referenced A Z list of around 150 of the subject areas most frequently handled at enquiry desks Each subject entry lists the most important information sources and where to locate them including printed and electronic sources relevant websites and useful contacts for referral purposes The authors use their extensive experience in reference work to offer useful tips warn of potential pitfalls and spotlight typical queries and how to tackle them This new edition has been brought right up to date with all sources checked for currency and many new ones added The searchability is enhanced by a comprehensive index to make those essential sources even easier to find saving you valuable minutes Readership Offering quick and easy pointers to a multitude of information sources this is an invaluable reference deskbook for all library and information staff in need of a speedy answer in reference libraries subject departments and other information units
