In the Trenches Tatiana L. Dubinskaya, 2020-03-01 Tatiana L. Dubinskaya's autobiographical novel of life in the Russian army marked the first major work published by a female World War I soldier in the Soviet Union Often compared to All Quiet on the Western Front Dubinskaya's stark and unsparing story presents a rare look at women in combat and one of the few works of fiction set on the eastern front Zinaida a Russian schoolgirl runs away from home to join the army Sent to the front she endures the horrors of trench warfare and the hardships of military life Undercurrents of revolutionary thinking filter into the ranks as morale begins to crumble Zinaida must come to grips with the havoc unleashed by the czar's overthrow and the new socialist government's attempts to impose revolutionary reforms on the army Destabilization and desertion follow and her regiment joins the chaotic mass retreat of the Russian army in the summer of 1917 In addition to Dubinskaya's original novel this edition includes selections from her 1936 autobiographical work Machine Gunner which she rewrote to satisfy Stalinist censors

A View Worth Teaching Tim Tyler, 2014-08-21 This commentary is not based on other commentaries It is an attempt to dare to see Jesus as he said he is Care has been taken to remain monotheistic Liberty has been taken to view women as equal to men something that hasn't been successfully done in any culture since Jesus walked the earth We have dared to look with fresh eyes at the Bible especially the gospel of John and assume nothing that is based solely on Christian tradition This is a view there are many views This one demands thinking and challenges the way we have been influenced to think about the Bible You may not agree with everything you read here but if you read the entire commentary you will never read the Bible the same again Interestingly the very first word Jesus said in his public ministry was the Greek word that means change your thinking Betty of the Consulate Lydia Jones Trowbridge,1929 New York Court of Appeals.
