Testas Journey:

Testa's Journey David Glivens,2004-04-01 Deep in the South near the Mississippi border lived a dark skinned girl with skin of chocolate eyes as big as marbles and hair as thick as the batter of a cake who went by the name of Testa Testa lived with her mother father and three siblings on a small farm in an old wooden shack Although Testa s family was very poor they were very rich with love for one another as long as they had each other and God in their lives Testa her mother and siblings later moved to the big crucial lonely and intense city of New York to seek a better life leaving her father behind to watch over the crops until the winter rolled in something Testa was not happy about because she loved her father very much He was a good man who worked very hard to take care of his family Life wasn t kind to Testa Her father died shortly after their move to New York leaving Testa with a broken heart to mend Rethinking Testimonial Cinema in Postdictatorship Argentina

Verónica Garibotto,2019-01-07 For roughly two decades after the collapse of the military regime in 1983 testimonial narrative was viewed and received as a privileged genre in Argentina Today however academics and public intellectuals are experiencing memory fatigue a backlash against the concepts of memory and trauma just as memory and testimonial films have reached the center of Argentinian public discourse In Rethinking Testimonial Cinema in Postdictatorship Argentina Verónica Garibotto looks at the causes for this reticence and argues that rather than discarding memory texts for their repetitive excess it is necessary to acknowledge them and their exhaustion as discourses of the present By critically examining how trauma theory and subaltern studies have previously been applied to testimonial cinema Garibotto rereads Argentinian films produced since 1983 and calls for an alternate interpretive framework at the intersection of semiotics theories of affect scholarship on hegemony and the ideological uses of documentary and fiction She argues that recurrent concepts such as trauma mourning memory and subalternity miss how testimonial films have changed over time shifting from subaltern narratives to official hegemonic and iconic accounts Her work highlights the urgent need to continue to study these types of narratives particularly at a time when military dictatorships have become entrenched in Latin America and memory narratives proliferate worldwide Although Argentina is Garibotto s focus her theory can be adapted to other contexts in which narratives about recent political conflicts have shifted from alternative versions of history to official hegemonic accounts such as in Spanish Chilean Uruguayan Brazilian South African and Holocaust testimonies Garibotto s study of testimonial cinema moves us to pursue a broader ideological analysis of the links between film and historical representation

The Amish and the Media Diane Zimmerman Umble,David L. Weaver-Zercher,2008-04-21 Of all the religious groups in contemporary America few demonstrate as many reservations toward the media as do the Old Order Amish Yet these attention wary citizens have become a media phenomenon featured in films novels magazines newspapers and television from Witness Amish in the City and Devil s Playground to the intense news coverage of the 2006 Nickel Mines School shooting But the Old Order Amish are more than media subjects Despite their separatist tendencies they use their own media networks to sustain Amish culture Chapters in the collection examine the influence of Amish produced newspapers and books along with the role of informal spokespeople in Old Order communities Friends and Rivals in the East de

Groot, Maurits van den Boogert, 2021-10-25 This volume based on both European and Ottoman sources investigates the commercial military and diplomatic relations between the Dutch and the English in the Levant from the early seventeenth to the early nineteenth century On the one hand there was a more or less constant commercial rivalry and there were moments of outright military hostility between the two powers On the other a common life in the Near East led to a form of solidarity which transcended the political situation in the home countries The role of the local population of the Levant of Ottoman officials and of the Greeks Armenians and other eastern Christians who intervened both as merchants and as embassy dragomans or interpreters was often decisive in influencing the dealings between the Dutch and English residents The nine papers examine these different aspects of a relationship which has never before been studied in a Levantine context Atlas of Egyptian Art Prisse D'Avennes, 2007 This enchanted tour of Egyptian art by one of its early explorers is one of the most beautiful modern works on ancient Egyptian art Prisse d'Avennes monumental work first published in Paris over a ten year period between 1868 and 1878 includes the only surviving record of many lost artifacts None of Prisse's contemporaries had the skill or endurance to bring such an endeavor to such a brilliant end He was far ahead of his time in his awareness of the vulnerability of the monuments and the need to protect them and to record them His were the first reliable drawings of Egyptian architecture and ornaments and the first plans and sections of constructions newly excavated He returned to Paris in 1860 with a rich harvest of 300 drawings 400 meters of squeezes and 150 photographs Maarten J Raven Curator of the Egyptian Department the Rijksmuseum van Oudheden Leiden Now reissued in a handy new hardbound reference format

Prisse d'Avennes : Atlas of Egyptian Art Prisse d'Avennes, 2000 Annotation This enchanted tour of Egyptian art by one of its early explorers is one of the most beautiful modern works on ancient Egyptian art Prisse d'Avennes monumental work first published in Paris over a ten year period between 1868 and 1878 includes the only surviving record of many lost artifacts On Country Roads and Fields Wiepke Loos, Marjan van Heteren, 1997 The exhibition presents the finest and most characteristic examples of landscape paintings drawings and watercolours by Dutch artists of two bygone centuries

They have been selected from numerous public and private collections in the Netherlands and other countries The artists share an intense love of nature a love no less fervent than that of their predecessors of the Dutch Golden Age to whom the Rijksmuseum devoted the exhibition Masters of 17th century Dutch landscape painting in 1987-88 Now ten years later it is the turn of the generations that followed The catalogue of On country roads and fields runs the gamut of such varied phenomena as the painted wall decorations of the 18th century the Romantic landscapes of Koekkoek and Schelfhout in the middle of the 19th century the impressionist renderings of the Hague School represented by Roelofs Mauve and Weissenbruch and ending around the turn of the century with the innovatory ideas of artists like Toorop Van Gogh Sluijters and Mondriaan No matter where the artists found their inspiration in Italy in the Dutch polders or simply in a view seen through a window each and every one of the more than hundred masterpieces radiates a profound and intimate relationship with the landscape BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
