Letters Karen Ray,2000 Seven year old Alex starts to lose her baby teeth begins a correspondence with the Tooth Fairy and tries to accept the fact that her family is moving to a distant state Tony Fomison Mark Forman,2025-03-13 As a boy Tony had drawn maps and diagrams and medieval battle scenes He d read fairy tales and been enchanted by local sites of Maori history As a young man he was a vagrant on the streets of Paris was twice imprisoned spent time in a mental hospital battled destructive addictions and experienced unrequited love and loneliness All of this would become the underworld of his art the subterranean realm where he could dwell so as to create work that expressed something of the human condition But it was always far wider than just his own story Endlessly curious about Pacific and Maori history and art and enchanted by European Renaissance art he wanted to find a new visual language for what it meant to live in the Pacific he wanted to make room at the back of our heads From the introduction by the author In a career spanning three decades Tony Fomison 1939 1990 produced some of New Zealand s most artistically and culturally significant paintings and drawings the backdrop of which was a life inseparable from his art of enduring intrigue A man of multitudes and a self perceived outsider Fomison was a son sibling and lover activist archaeologist and scholar trickster addict and disrupter and above all else an artist who shed light on the human condition and reimagined life in Aotearoa In this compelling biography developed over more than a decade Mark Forman draws on archival material and interviews with more than 150 people including Fomison s family and close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers
