Using Human Rights Law In English Courts:

Using Human Rights Law in English Courts Murray Hunt, 1998-02-19 This book demonstrates the scope that already exists for using international human rights law in English courts Using Human Rights Law in English Courts Murray Hunt, 1997 The primary purpose of this book is to demonstrate the scope that already exists for using international human rights law in English courts regardless of its status as incorporated or unincorporated Murray Hunt addresses directly what are commonly supposed to be the theoretical obstacles to using human rights law in English courts and aims to raise awareness of the extent to which these have now fallen away in light of recent developments in English judicial practice The book was first published in hardback in March 1997 Bloomsbury Publishing Blackstone's Guide to the Human Rights Act 1998 John Wadham, Helen Mountfield, 1999 The Human Rights Act 1998 and the incorporation of the European Convention on Human Rights should have a significant impact in the constitutional balance between the citizen and the state The Act ensures that the rights in the Convention are binding on all public bodies or those that exercise public functions

Fundamental Rights and Private Law in the European Union: A comparative overview Gert Brüggemeier, Aurelia Colombi Ciacchi, Giovanni Comandé, 2010 This two volume comparative study carried out by the Research Training Network on Fundamental Rights and Private Law in the European Union offers an overview of the doctrines and case law on the direct or indirect application of a fundamental right for example a national constitutional right or an international human right in order to solve a dispute between private parties in England France Germany Italy the Netherlands Poland Portugal Spain and Sweden Volume I contains national reports for each of these countries preceded by a brief introduction explaining the project terminology and methodology and followed by a comparative chapter A contribution on the horizontal effect of fundamental rights and freedoms in EU law is also included Volume II includes ten comparative analyses of selected case patterns in contract tort property and family law which have been adjudicated with reference to fundamental rights in many or at least some of these countries

Human Rights Obligations of Non-state Actors Andrew Clapham, 2006 This work presents an approach to human rights which goes beyond the traditional focus on states and outlines the human rights obligations of non state actors It finishes with examples of how they can be held legally accountable for their actions in various jurisdictions

Texas International Law Journal , 2002 The Use of Comparative Law by Courts Ulrich Drobnig, J. H. M. van Erp, 1999 This new volume contains fourteen national reports and a General Report on the use of comparative law by courts which were presented at the XIVth International Congress of Comparative Law in Athens It provides a general survey of the frequency and methods of a comparative recourse to foreign law by courts describing both the methods of such recourse and the typical fields in which it is undertaken The reports offer an interesting cross section of contemporary court practice from a wide variety of countries around the world andndash large and small unitary and federal and with differing historical backgrounds All demonstrate the needs of national courts to look to foreign law for inspiration or as a model for dealing with new unsettled issues of national law and the reports illustrate well the impact of divergent traditions attitudes and surrounding circumstances Of special interest are both the role of comparative law and the comparative method employed in the practice of a supranational court such as the European Court of Justice In addition to the General Report this volume contains national reports from the following countries Canada European Union France Germany Greece Iceland Israel Japan Luxembourg The Netherlands United Kingdom and United States of America University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform University of Michigan. Law School,2000 The Australian Year Book of International Law ,2003 The Coming Together of the Common Law and the Civil Law Basil S Markesinis,2000-04-19 Judges and jurists from across Europe commemorate the passing of the millennium with expanded versions of presentations they made at a one day conference in London presumably held sometime in 2000 They explore the cross fertilization of ideas now taking place between the common and civil law systems in such areas as human rights commercial law and comparative methodology There is no index The US distribution is by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The University of New South Wales Law Journal ,2003 European Human Rights Law Mark W.
