No Strings Attached , I Build My House Jane Burr,1918 Paradox Of Natural Mothering Chris Bobel,2010-06-10 Single or married working mothers are if not the norm no longer exceptional These days women who stay at home to raise their children seem to be making a radical lifestyle choice Indeed the women at the center of The Paradox of Natural Mothering have renounced consumerism and careerism in order to reclaim home and family These natural mothers favor parenting practices that set them apart from the mainstream home birth extended breast feeding home schooling and natural health care Regarding themselves as part of a movement natural mothers believe they are changing society one child one family at a time Author Chris Bobel profiles some thirty natural mothers probing into their choices and asking whether they are reforming or conforming to women s traditional role Bobel s subjects say that they have chosen to follow their nature rather than social imperatives Embracing such lifestyle alternatives as voluntary simplicity and attachment parenting they place family above status and personal achievement Bobel illuminates the paradoxes of natural mothering the ways in which these women resist the trappings of upward mobility but acquiesce to a kind of biological determinism and conventional gender scripts
