clock this morning I found all the children sitting quietly at their desks engaged in writing their journals or their spelling lessons During this time of silent study Mr Alcott generally walks about the room preparing pencils and pens at each seat and making remarks For the study of this lesson an hour is generally appropriated which gives time for the journalists also to learn it About a quarter before ten Mr Alcott takes the seven younger members of this spelling class as they cannot use a dictionary very intelligently and lets them spell the words over to him and he tells them their meanings Of
