Wheat And Woman:

Wheat and Woman Georgina Binnie-Clark,1914 Wheat and Woman Georgina Binnie-Clark,2006-12-15 An established writer before she came to Canada Georgina Binnie Clark 1871 1947 settled in Saskatchewan in 1905 to become a farmer It was an unlikely ambition for a woman in her day particularly an English gentlewoman and in the opinion of many an impossible one The reaction of onlookers was unhesitatingly and unqualifiedly unsupportive Binnie Clark however proved their skepticism to be unfounded Originally published in 1914 Wheat and Woman is an autobiographical account of Georgina Binnie Clark s first three years on the prairies the story of how she learned to define and deal with her anomalous position in pre war prairie society Although Binnie Clark does not dismiss the difficult lessons of life on the land for an English greenhorn or the loneliness of a woman pursuing what was considered to be a man s job she emphasizes the unique opportunities for women in Canada If life was difficult in Canada it was impossible for some in England With a surplus population of more than a million women most stood almost no statistical chance of finding a husband in England The gentlewomen among them were barred by class from all but a few overcrowded and underpaid occupations Wheat and Woman also illuminates the sexual politics of settlement Binnie Clark was only too familiar with the limitations that Canadian law placed on women Among women of the prairies chief among these was the homestead law which excluded all but a handful of women from the right to claim a free farm from the Dominion s public lands This new reprint of Binnie Clark s autobiographical writing includes an introduction by Susan Jackel written for a 1979 edition of the text as well as a new scholarly introduction by historian Sarah A Carter who received a Killam Fellowship for the study of Great Plains women of Canada and the United States Wheat and Woman is a fascinating record of a gifted and determined woman s experience in prairie farming and a unique document in Canadian social history WHEAT & WOMAN Georgina Binnie-Clark,2016-08-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Woman's Home Companion ,1915 The Young Woman's Journal ,1929 Woman's City Club Bulletin Woman's City Club of Chicago,1923 Woman's Home Companion ,1954 Woman's Work ,1911 Club Woman's Cook Book Ramblers' Club (Minneapolis),1911
