When Getting Along Seems Impossible:

When Getting Along Is Not Enough Maureen Walker, 2019 Now more than ever race has become a morphing relational dynamic that has less to do with the demographic census box we check and more with how we make sense of our lives who we are and who we can become in relationships with others Using anecdotes from her practice as a licensed psychologist and as an African American growing up in the South Walker provides a way for educators and social service professionals to enter into cross racial discussions about race and race relations She identifies three essential relational skills for personal transformation and cultural healing that are the foundations for repairing the damage wrought by racism While Walker does not sugarcoat the destructive history of racism that we all inherit in the United States the book's vision is ultimately affirming empowering hopeful and inclusive about the individual and collective power to heal our divisions and disconnections Book Features Presents a new way of understanding race as a relational dynamic and racism as a symptom of disconnection Synthesizes for the first time two important systems of thought relational cultural theory and race social identity theory Includes Pause to Reflect exercises designed to stimulate group conversations in book clubs social justice groups staff development classrooms and workplace training Offers practical everyday solutions for people of different races to better understand and accept one another

Gill, 2020-04-14 During the twentieth century theological and religious perspectives have been marginalized if not utterly excluded in many of our colleges and universities The essays in this book argue in different ways for the critical appreciative inclusion of theological and religious perspectives in higher education The contributors believe that even in our secular religiously disestablished era religion and God continue to occupy an important and dynamic role in personal and social life If our colleges and universities are to fulfill their higher aspirations of educating whole persons for the real world in all of its diversity and challenge we need to go bravely against the flow and give God tenure
