Rock: The Primary Text - Developing a Musicology of Rock Allan F Moore,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Revised to respond to developments within the discipline and with new material added to reflect the author s and others further work in this field this book s focus remains British rock Its aims are to establish analytic criteria for rock as a whole to provide a historicized discussion of British rock and to enable a critical re evaluation of progressive rock itself This book has been written in the conviction that with rock criticism and commentary in general insufficient attention is paid to what the author calls the primary text that constituted by the sounds themselves as opposed to commentaries on them In the first chapter Allan Moore argues for the development of a musicology particular to rock which may share aspects of established musicology but which acknowledges that rock differs in its purposes publics and aims The primary elements of such a musicology are then laid out in Chapter 2 Next there are critiques of rock myths of authenticity and unmediated expression These are centred on the ideological appropriation of the ethos and techniques of the blues and extend to discussions of a range of more recent rock styles The crucial role played by authenticity in the reception of rock is considered at more length in Chapter 5

The Human Mind's Imaginings Michael O'Neill,1989 This book argues that Percy Shelley s developing capacity to accommodate and explore conflict lies at the heart of his poetic achievement Focusing particularly on the poetry s language tones and imaginative life O Neill offers lucid and original readings of Alastor Hymn to Intellectual Beauty and Mont Blanc Julian and Maddalo The Cenci Prometheus Unbound The Witch of Atlas Epipsychidion and The Triumph of Life Throwing fresh light on the experience of reading Shelley the book is a sympathetic yet discriminating discussion of a poet who has too often been the object of uncritical admiration or automatic dislike New-Harmony Gazette ,1969 Woman in Sacred Song Eva Munson Smith,1888
