Survival Dancing:

Dancing with Difference Linda Ashley, 2012-12-09 As the global vicissitudes of migration unfold so does ethnic difference in the classroom and this book offers a timely examination of teaching about culturally different dances At a time when the world of dance is on the one hand seemingly becoming more like fusion cookery there is another faction promoting isolation and preservation of tradition How if at all may these two worlds co exist in dance education Understanding teaching about culturally different dances from postmodern postcolonial pluralist and critical perspectives creates an urgent demand to develop relevant pedagogy in dance education What is required to support dance educators into the next phase of dance education so as to avoid teaching from within a Eurocentric creative dance model alone An ethnographic investigation with teachers in New Zealand lays a foundation for the examination of issues challenges and opportunities associated with teaching about culturally different dances Concerns and issues surrounding notions of tradition innovation appropriation interculturalism social justice and critical pedagogy emerge Engaging with both practice and theory is a priority in this book and a nexus model in which the theoretical fields of critical cultural theory semiotics ethnography and anthropology can be activated as teachers teach is proposed as informing approaches to teaching about culturally different dances Even though some practical suggestions for teaching are presented the main concern is to motivate further thinking and research into teaching about dancing with cultural difference Cover photo Photo credit lester de Vere photography ltd Dancing with Difference 2009 Directed and co choreographed for AUT University Bachelor of Dance by Linda Ashley with Jonelle Kawana Yoon jee Lee Keneti Muaiava Aya Nakamura Siauala Nili Valance Smith Sakura Stirling and dancers Won first prize in the 2009 Viva Eclectika Aotearoa s Intercultural Dance and Music Biennial Challenge run by NZ Asia Association Inc NZ and the NZ Diversity Action Programme

The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada's motto and a good description of this volume's range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada's finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada

American Public Memory and the Holocaust Lisa A. Costello, 2019-10-17 The recent rise of global antisemitism Holocaust denial and American white nationalism has created a dangerous challenge to Holocaust public memory on an unprecedented scale This book is a timely exploration of the ways in which next generation Holocaust survivors combine old and new media to bring newer generations of audiences into active engagement with Holocaust histories Readers have been socialized to expect memorialization artifacts about the Holocaust to come in the form of diaries memoirs photos or documentaries in which gender is often absent or marginalized This book shows a complex process of remembering the past that can positively shift our orientations toward others Using gender performance and rhetoric as a frame Lisa Costello questions public memory as gender neutral while showing how new forms of memorialization like digital archives YouTube posts hybrid memoirs and small films build emotional connections that bring us closer to the past
