The Transcontinental Maghreb Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2017-10-24 The writer Gabriel Audisio once called the Mediterranean a liquid continent Taking up the challenge issued by Audisio's phrase Edwige Tamalet Talbayev insists that we understand the region on both sides of the Mediterranean through a transcontinental heuristic Rather than merely read the Maghreb in the context of its European colonizers from across the Mediterranean Talbayev compellingly argues for a transmaritime deployment of the Maghreb across the multiple Mediterranean sites to which it has been materially and culturally bound for millennia The Transcontinental Maghreb reveals these Mediterranean imaginaries to intersect with Maghrebi claims to an inclusive democratic national ideal yet to be realized Through a sustained reflection on allegory and critical melancholia the book shows how the Mediterranean decenters postcolonial nation building projects and mediates the nomadic subject's reinsertion into a national collective respectful of heterogeneity In engaging the space of the sea the hybridity it produces and the way it has shaped such historical dynamics as globalization imperialism decolonization and nationalism the book rethinks the very nature of postcolonial histories and identities along its shores Textual Awareness

Dirk Van Hulle, 2009-12-14 Aware of the act of writing as a temporal process many modernist authors preserved numerous manuscripts of their works which themselves thematized time Textual Awareness analyzes the writing processes in James Joyce's Finnegans Wake Marcel Proust's la recherche du temps perdu and Thomas Mann's Doktor Faustus and relates these to Anglo American French and German theories of text By relating theory to practice this comparative study reveals the links between literary and textual criticism A key issue in both textual criticism and the so called crisis of the novel is the tension between the finished and the unfinished After a theoretical examination of the relationship between genetic and textual criticism Dirk Van Hulle uses the three case studies to show how at each stage in the writing process the text still had the potential of becoming something entirely different how and why these genres proceeded the way they did how Joyce Proust and Mann allowed contingencies to shape their work how these authors recycled the words of their critics in order to inoculate their works against them how they shaped an intertextual dimension through the processing of source texts and reading notes and how text continually generated more text Van Hulle's exploration of process sheds new light on the remarkable fact that so many modernist authors protected their manuscripts implying both the authors' urge to grasp everything and their awareness of the dangers of their encyclopedic projects Textual Awareness offers new insights into the artificiality of the artifact the novel that are relevant to the study of literary modernism in general and the study of James Joyce Marcel Proust and Thomas Mann in particular Dirk Van Hulle is Assistant Professor of English and German Literature

University of Antwerp Aux origines de la Bible Konrad Schmid, Jens Schröter, 2021-09-29 La Bible a réunit des écrits très différents datant de plusieurs millénaires et pourtant elle se présente sous la forme d'un seul et même livre Comment cette oeuvre extraordinaire a-t-elle vu le jour Pas pas deux minents chercheurs en sciences bibliques Konrad Schmid et Jens Schröter décryptent comment des écrits anciens des chants des proverbes de sagesse et des lois mais aussi des lettres adressées aux premières communautés chrétiennes et des écrits sur Jésus ont dans un long processus donné naissance aux saintes écritures des Juifs et des chrétiens qui sont lues dans le monde entier Un livre qui fait le point sur les dernières recherches et propose une formidable vue d'ensemble afin de mieux comprendre comment la formation de la Bible a eu lieu
