The Representation of Working People in Britain and France Antoine Capet,2009-10-02 It is a truism that History is about representation but then opinions will diverge as it should be between what is meant by representation Most of the chapters in this volume were first presented in November 2008 at an International Conference co organised by the Society for the Study of Labour History and the University of Rouen The authors of all generations come from Britain France Germany and the United States and cover the field from the Middle Ages to the most recent developments The friendly confrontation of points of view and cross fertilisation which result from such undertakings can only add to our perception of the diversity of that elusive notion in History representation of working people in Britain and France in this particular instance Beyond the differences in periods places and situations the reader will not fail however to see the bridges which recurrently link the various elements in the collection
