Space Places:

Spaces and Places in Western India Bina Sengar, Laurie Hovell McMillin, 2019-09-05 This book studies places and spaces in Western India both as geographical locations and as imagined constructs It uncovers the rich history of the region from the perspective of places of pilgrimage commerce community expression and indigeneity The volume examines how spaces are intrinsically connected to the lived experiences of people It explores how spaces in Western India have been constructed over time and how these are reflected in both historical and contemporary settings in the art architecture political movements and in identity formation The rich examples explored in this volume include sites of Bhakti and Sufi literature Maharashtrian Sikh identity Mahanubhav pilgrimage monetary practices of the Peshwas and the internet as an emancipatory space for the Dalit youth in Maharashtra The chapters in this book establish and affirm the forever evolving cultural topography of Western India Taking a multidimensional approach this book widens the scope of academic discussions on the theme of space and place It will be useful for scholars and researchers of history cultural studies geography the humanities city studies and sociology

Strange Places Alexandra Kogl, 2008-01-01 Strange Places The Political Potentials and Perils of Everyday Spaces explores the ways in which places can support good politics in a global era Using concrete examples and cases this interdisciplinary work is accessible to a broad scholarly audience

Teaching Space, Place, and Literature Robert Tally Jr., 2017-10-30 Space place and mapping have become key concepts in literary and cultural studies The transformational effects of postcolonialism globalization and the rise of ever more advanced information technologies helped to push space and spatiality into the foreground as traditional spatial or geographic limits are erased or redrawn Teaching Space Place and Literature surveys a broad expanse of literary critical theoretical historical territories as it presents both an introduction to teaching spatial literary studies and an essential guide to scholarly research Divided into sections on key concepts and issues teaching strategies urban spaces place race and gender and spatiality periods and genres this comprehensive book is the ideal way to approach the teaching of space and place in the humanities classroom

Socio-Legal Studies on Epistemic Injustice and Spaces and Places Mark L Flear, Ceri Davies-Tyrie, Daniel Wincott, 2026-01-01 This edited collection illuminates what the concept of a specifically epistemic type of injustice has to offer socio legal analysts The epistemic aspects of injustice comprise more than knowledges meaning and understanding to include the supporting material and discursive infra structures for their production and dissemination arising in space place time This book focuses on legal and regulatory arrangements and the forms of knowledge and meaning they carry and with which they interact in order to bring to light their spatial and place relatedness or boundedness which includes their temporal dimensions at various scales These highly innovative studies of epistemic injustice encompass the responsabilisation of patients in the North of England and Northern Ireland housing the systemic operations of law the construction of digital spaces by algorithms hospital discharges case law affecting Indigenous communities in Kenya the experience of mining disaster in Brazil and the perspectives of rare diseases patients in Austria during the COVID 19 pandemic The book contributes towards law and geography in particular through the emphasis on temporality as part of space and place By highlighting the importance of author positionality and reflexivity and pausing so as to bolster the development of humility and sensitivity for more fully informed studies on epistemic injustice and its ameliorations the book also advances methodology for future studies

Spaces of Geographical Thought Paul J. Cloke, Ron Johnston, Ronald John Johnston, 2005-02-16 Examining key ideas like space and place which inform the geographic imagination this text discusses the core conceptual vocabulary of human geography
