Voices in the Midst Catherine Ann Sabatino, 2010-04-13 This is not a book for the faint-hearted. This topic affects every one of us whether we realize it or not and it is one that the writer crafts with honor. It is an explosively heart-rendering must-read that deals with the residuals of severe child abuse and the squalid monsters who commit such horrendous acts: monsters who hide among us all. Catherine's brutal honesty is commendably brave. She spares nothing in order to get her message across for her readers to get the full feeling of the story. With keen empathy and vibrancy, Catherine takes you on a journey of finalizing contingent and prevailing wisdom. The reader is taken into the lives and the sensations of such victims with specific ardor. Her handling of the topic sets the reader's feet onto the very misbegotten path that these unfortunate people were unwillingly cast onto. And she does it with such openly harsh tact. She artfully commends all victims into their rightful place by giving validating insight into the makings of the deep scars and the mechanisms that protrude into their lives. Some might view this book as a type of thriller or horror tale by way of its purely raw depiction of a sincere truth. The horizon is drawn via a variety of delicately captured candidness. You will tingle and sensate from this depiction of human ugliness at its best. The words may rip through you but you will undoubtedly reach a poignant climax by the travels you go on with her main character. Catherine has succeeded in outlining the nefarious nature that brings about the subject with colorful detail in this creative non-fiction novel. You will not be able to put it down. Ballou's Monthly Magazine, 1881 Ballou's Dollar

Monthly Magazine, 1876 Laramie Holds the Range Frank Hamilton Spearman, 1921 Kate Doubleday leaves her life in the East behind when her mother dies and heads for the Western Rockies where she will meet her father for the first time. Barb Doubleday is a cold, hard, and very powerful rancher with friends and enemies alike. Times are tough for cattlemen and now with Doubleday constantly losing cattle to rustlers, there's about to be hell to pay. Doubleday and his top honchos, Tom Stone and Harry Van Horn, are determined to put a stop to the losses and if people have to die, that's all right with them. Jim Laramie is as honest as the day is long and that might prove unfortunate for him. Laramie's refusal to go along with the murderous plans of the Doubleday gang puts him directly in their crosshairs. And when Kate announces that she and Laramie are going to be married, there's one chance in a thousand that he'll live to be a groom. The United Presbyterian, 1900

Up and In Deborah Disney, 2014-12-01 A laugh-out-loud debut that will delight fans of Liane Moriarty and Fiona Higgins. This is The Devil Wears Prada at the school gates. Distinctly middle-class parents, Maria and Joe, have committed every bit of available income to giving their daughters, Kate and Sarah, the best education possible, which to them means attending the most exclusive girls' school in the state. But when Kate befriends the spoiled and moody Mirabella, Maria must learn to play nicely with Mirabella's mother Bea the beguiling yet beastly queen of the toffee nosed school mothers at Riverton. A series of social blunders and intentional snubs make Maria determined to ensure Kate's rightful position both at school and on the Saturday morning netball team but as Maria works hard to negotiate the social hierarchy her previously contented life with Joe falls far from view. With her mastery of dialogue and character Australian author Deborah Disney skillfully balances keen and witty observations about daily life with the more serious issues of schoolyard bullying and social isolation. You will laugh you will nod along and you will want to take the increasingly neurotic Maria aside and point out that in all her desperate gaffe filled attempts to fit in with the well heeled champagne swilling mummies of Riverton she might just be risking all that she holds dear. My stand out fiction read for 2015. Rebecca Sparrow author Mamamia columnist and host of So What Are You Reading. This story showcases a world where motherhood is a competitive sport highly recommended Chicklit Club High Raters. While the book is satirical and clearly a mummy mafia on speed version of events it has so many nuggets of truth that Up and In is destined to become the next must read for any mum navigating schoolyard politics. Kidspot Parenting Magazine I am so excited that this is Deborah Disney's debut novel. It's accomplished compelling and one of those novels that will tug at the heartstrings one minute and have you giggling the next. Warm extremely well written and a complete delight to read. If you're looking for a light funny yet insightful novel then congratulations you've found it. Bookaholic Holly
