The Burning Point:

The Burning Point Frances Richey, 2004 Selected by Stephen Corey as the winner of the Ninth Annual White Pine Press Poetry Prize this book announces the arrival of a formidable new voice in American letters Richey amply demonstrates the passion for language and for life that led her to abandon a successful business career to pursue a writer's life Meticulously crafted poems reflect Richey's upbringing in West Virginia as well as the journey toward Manhattan and a life very different from what might have been expected At every turn we encounter a woman unafraid to grow into herself and fully engage with the world and generous enough to allow the reader to see that world through her eyes Bulletin William Kunerth, 1914 Tenth Census of the United States, 1880: Petroleum United States.
