Downey, Jürgen Manemann, Steven T. Ostovich,2006 Domination objectification and control seem to be emerging as the virtues of our time Yet they also seem to misfire in frustration violence and resignation The human voice has shrunk to a whisper drowned out in the cacophony of consumerism competition egoism and fear Are we missing God Both the question and its answers are ambiguous God may be missed in different ways Missing God may be a matter of our missing the signs of God s presence in the world Talk about God and theology have been marginalized as relics of the past Missing God may refer to our often hidden and sometimes misdirected longing for God The new political theology derived from the work of Johann Baptist Metz offers a response to our missing God It does this as an anamnestic and eschatological resistance to forgetting grounded in a memoria passionis responding to others suffering Metz s model of critical understanding sublates the modern variations on the dichotomy of reason and faith and provides an antidote to our cultural amnesia in the mystical political double structure of faith A political theology takes its shape only when it engages the issues of the times The essays in this volume are by political theologians and others influenced by Johann Baptist Metz They sharpen the questions and imperatives which mark political theology today In addition this collection testifies to the dynamic continuity of political theology in its German roots and North American developments
