The Toothache Tree:

Encounter with the Toothache Tree on the Outer Banks Rita Mizelle, 1986 The Way of the Wise J.T. Sibley, 2015-11-12

Today we worry about Mad Cow Disease AIDS Alzheimers and other prolonged onset ailments But back in the good old days folks worried about infected cuts and slashes internal diseases parasites and a whole variety of ailments which are perfectly treatable or preventable by means of modern medicine Folks rarely lived long enough to suffer from a long slow disease heck just staying alive to see one s fortieth birthday was considered a feat Even as late as the 19th century medicine was pretty medieval to our way of looking at it There were no wonder drugs no X ray or CAT scans no hospitals as we know them today and spotty training of medical professionals The dentist was feared and quack nostrums were sold by the case by traveling snake oil salesmen Many of those nostrums contained relatively innocuous ingredients but some were downright dangerous especially those incorporating psychoactive alkaloids heavy metals or raw isotopes Mercury or radium were primary ingredients in some quack medicinal cures even into the early 20th century And in rural areas the old magic medicine was still practiced by generations of folks who passed on these traditions and lore to their students and or children Much of the material presented in this volume has already been documented and published in the Norwegian language by scholars and folklorists such as Ingjald Reichborn Kjennerud Nils Lid Hjalmar Falk Olav B O A H eg Per Holck Odd Nordland Chr Bang and A Steen among others There has been a growing interest in folklore folk medicine and the old ways in recent years and this volume is an attempt to present a part of this lore to the English speaking audience Learning the Valley John Leland, 2012-10-15

Meanderings through a storied Virginia region with a look at its significance from prehistory to the present In Learning the Valley award winning nature writer John Leland guides readers through the natural and human history of the Shenandoah Valley in twenty five short essays on topics ranging from poison ivy and maple syrup to Stonewall Jackson and spelunking Undergirding this dynamic narrative of place and time is a tale of self discovery and relationship building as Leland s excursions into the valley lead him to a new awareness of himself and strengthen his bond with his young son Edward Spanning some two hundred miles through the Blue Ridge and Allegheny mountains in western Virginia the Shenandoah Valley is the prehistoric home of mastodons and giants sloths the site of a storied Civil War campaign and now a popular destination for outdoor adventures to be had beneath the oaks chestnuts hickories maples and centuries old cedars Leland offers informed perspectives on the valley s rich heritage drawing from geology biology paleontology climatology and military and social history to present a compelling appreciation for the region s importance from prehistory to the present and to map the impact of humanity and nature on one another within this landscape Leland s essays are grounded in recognizable landmarks including House Mountain Massanutten Mountain Maury River Whistle Creek Harpers Ferry and Student Rock Whether he is chronicling the European origins of the valley s so called American boxwoods commenting on the nineteenth century fascination with sassafras or recalling his son s first reactions to the Natural Bridge of Virginia and its encompassing tourist developments Leland uses keen insights adroit research and thoughtful literary and historical allusions to bring the Big Valley vibrantly to life Like an amiable and accomplished tour guide Leland readily shares all he has learned in his years among the woods waters and wildlife of the Shenandoah But the heart of his narrative transcends the valley and invites readers to find their own sites of adventure and reflection to revisit the wonders and mysteries to be found in their own backyards as a chance to in the words of Henry David Thoreau live like a traveler at home
