Sisters in Crisis Ann Carey Schmiedeler, 2013-06-11 Fifty years ago nearly 200 000 religious sisters worked in Catholic schools hospitals and other institutions throughout the United States American Catholics honored these women of faith who founded and built these flourishing works of mercy Then came the ideological shifts and moral upheavals of the 1960s and ever since most women's orders in the United States have been in a state of crisis Now the sisters are aging with fewer and fewer younger women to take their place Perhaps related to this demographic shift is the continuing doctrinal confusion that has come under the scrutiny of the Vatican Using the archival records of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious and other prominent groups of sisters journalist and author Ann Carey shows how feminist activists unraveled American women's religious communities from their leadership positions in national organizations and large congregations She also explains the recent and necessary interventions by the Vatican After examining the many forces that have contributed to the crisis Carey reports on a promising sign of renewal in American religious life the growing number of young women attracted to older communities that have retained their identity and newly formed yet traditional congregations

We Agreed to be Different Annemiek van der Veen, Dolly Verhoeven, 2005 Red Lip Theology Candice Marie Benbow, 2022-01-18 A moving essay collection promoting freedom self love and divine wholeness for Black women and opening new levels of understanding and ideological transformation for non Black women and allies Candice Marie Benbow is a once in a generation theologian the kind who having ground dogma into dust with the fine point of a stiletto leads us into the wide open spaces of faith Brittney Cooper author of Eloquent Rage and co editor of The Crunk Feminist Collection

Blurring the boundaries of righteous and irreverent Red Lip Theology invites us to discover freedom in a progressive Christian faith that incorporates activism feminism and radical authenticity

Essayist and theologian Candice Marie Benbow's essays explore universal themes like heartache loss forgiveness and sexuality and she unflinchingly empowers women who struggle with feeling loved and nurtured by church culture Benbow writes powerfully about experiences at the heart of her Black womanhood In honoring her single mother's love and triumphs and mourning her unexpected passing she finds herself forced to shed restrictions she'd been taught to place on her faith practice And by embracing alternative spirituality and womanist theology and confronting staid attitudes on body positivity and LGBTQ rights Benbow challenges religious institutions faith leaders and communities to reimagine how faith can be a tool of liberation and transformation for women and girls

Behind the Tapestry M. Rose Peluso, 2021-01-29 Behind the Tapestry is the compelling true story told from behind convent walls of one woman's struggles to make peace with a mysterious chronic illness and her unfulfilled dream of being a Catholic nun Maryanne was a 29 year old graphic designer working towards a lifelong desire to someday move to Hollywood and become an Academy Award winning art director But an unexpected invitation to a Catholic prayer meeting would forever change Maryanne's life showing her desires she didn't know she possessed After being abruptly fired from her job and spending a lot of time in prayer Maryanne embarked on a journey to discover God's will for her life This quest eventually led her to the Catholic Convent and the realization that all she's ever really wanted was to devote herself to Jesus Entering Religious Life was all that Maryanne thought about for more than a year but there was a problem She found herself plagued by a mysterious condition that caused widespread chronic pain However in spite of this pain Maryanne joined a group of Franciscan Sisters in 1999 Her life in the Convent was filled with many questions struggles challenges and a whole lot of physical pain Then when already strained relationships with her superiors became even more fractured with the lines of communication practically severed Sister Maryanne was forced to make a heart wrenching decision One that would not only impact her life but the lives of those around her Should she remain in the Convent and go on to take final vows or leave her Religious Life behind and take care of herself instead
