Trading the Fruits of the Land Tjalling Dijkstra, 2018-12-20 First published in 1997 this volume contributes to the knowledge for the trade of vegetables fruits and tubers so called horticultural commodities As African policy makers try to keep pace with new developments in private food trade they require knowledge of the structures of private trade systems and the factors that govern their long term development The study analyses the structure and development of horticultural marketing channels in Kenya It is based primarily on surveys of some 500 farmers in four districts and 750 horticultural traders in 18 market places Commercial horticultural farmers domestic traders export traders agents facilitators marketing cooperatives and processors are all reviewed The study devotes special attention to the efficiency of collecting wholesalers and to the development of rural assembly markets It develops a model which can elucidate vertical differentiation processes in the Kenyan horticultural channels The analyses show that marketing channel theory can be of great relevance to the developing world The proposed vertical differentiation model can aid in predicting future changes in horticultural marketing systems in Kenya as well as in other African countries

A Tale of Two Parties Kenneth Janda, 2021-03-01 Since 1952 the social bases of the Democratic and Republican parties have undergone radical reshuffling At the start of this period southern Blacks favored Lincoln s Republican Party over suspect Democrats and women favored Democrats more than Republicans In 2020 these facts have been completely reversed A Tale of Two Parties Living Amongst Democrats and Republicans Since 1952 traces through this transformation by showing How the United States society has changed over the last seven decades in terms of regional growth income urbanization education religion ethnicity and ideology How differently the two parties have appealed to groups in these social cleavages How groups in these social cleavages have become concentrated within the bases of the Democratic and Republican parties How party identification becomes intertwined with social identity to generate polarization akin to that of rapid sports fans or primitive tribes A Tale of Two Parties Living Amongst Democrats and Republicans Since 1952 will have a wide and enthusiastic readership among political scientists and researchers of American politics campaigns and elections and voting and elections

La Harpe's Post George H. Odell, 2002-09-18 This major contribution to contact period studies points to the Lasley Vore site in modern Oklahoma as the most likely first meeting place of Plains Indians and Europeans more than 300 years ago In 1718 Jean Baptiste Bnard Sieur de la Harpe departed St Malo in Brittany for the New World La Harpe a member of the French bourgeoisie arrived at Dauphin Island on the Gulf coast to take up the entrepreneurial concession provided by the director of the French colony Jean Baptiste LeMoyne de Bienville La Harpe s charge was to open a trading post on the Red River just above a Caddoan village not far from present day Texarkana Following the establishment of this post La Harpe ventured farther north to extend his trade market into the region occupied by the Wichita Indians Here he encountered a Tawakoni village with an estimated 6 000 inhabitants a number that swelled to 7 000 during the ten day visit Despite years of ethnohistoric and archaeological research no scholar had successfully established where this important meeting took place Then in 1988 George Odell and his crew surveyed and excavated an area 13 miles south of Tulsa along the Arkansas River that revealed undeniable association of Native American habitation refuse with 18th century European trade goods Odell here presents a full account of the presumed location of the Tawakoni village as revealed through the analysis of excavated materials from nine specialist collaborators In a strikingly well written narrative report employing careful study and innovative analysis supported by appendixes containing the excavation data Odell combines documentary history and archaeological evidence to pinpoint the probable site of the first European contact with North American Plains Indians
