The Tin-Pot Foreign General And the Old Iron Woman Raymond Briggs,2013-05-02 BANG BANG BANG went the guns of the Tin Pot Foreign General BANG BANG BANG went the guns of the Old Iron Woman Raymond Briggs's visceral take on the Falklands War is uncompromising in its dark and moving satire of the build up and aftermath of the conflict This controversial book's infamous stars General Leopoldo Galtieri and Margaret Thatcher are depicted as robotic caricatures with a pointless blood lust Now available as an eBook for the first time The Tin-pot Foreign General and the Old Iron Woman Raymond Briggs,1984 Fighting over an innocent little island the ambitious Tin Pot Foreign General and the greedy Old Iron Woman end up killing hundreds of brave men in a meaningless war Ways of Being Male John Stephens,2013-10-18 Given the substantial impact of feminism on children's literature and culture during the last quarter century it comes as no surprise that gender studies have focused predominantly on issues of female representation The question of how the same patriarchal ideology structured representations of male bodies and behaviors was until very recently a marginal discussion Now that masculinity has emerged as an overt theme in children's literature and film critical consideration of the subject is timely if not long overdue Ways of Being Male addresses this new concern in an unprecedented collection of essays examining how contemporary debates about masculinity are reflected in fiction and film for young adults An outstanding team of scholars elucidates the ways in which different versions of male identity are constructed and presented to young audiences The contributors drawn from a variety of academic disciplines employ international discourses in literary criticism feminism social sciences film theory psychoanalytic criticism and queer theory in their wide ranging exploration of male representation With its illuminating array of perspectives this pioneering survey brings a long neglected subject into sharp focus The Militarization of Childhood J. Beier,2011-11-16 In its various manifestations the campaign to end child soldiering has brought graphic images of militarized children to popular consciousness In the main this has been a campaign that has seemed to speak to African contexts without as much reflection on the myriad ways in which the lives of children are militarized in advanced post industrial societies Proceeding from this quite striking omission the contributors to this volume move beyond the usual focus on the global South Making what will be an important contribution to a much needed critical turn in the vast and still rapidly growing child soldier literature they address multifarious ways in which childhood is militarized beyond the global South through enactments of militarism that have drawn much less in the way of critical inquiry Playing with Picturebooks C. Allan,2012-10-10 Offers new insights into the continuing influence of postmodernism on a wide range of international picture books for children published between 1963 and 2008 Its chapters include metafiction disruption to narrative conventions interrogation of truths historiographic metafiction difference and ex centricity globalisation and media Children at War Kate Agnew,Geoff Fox,2001-10-01 This book provides a critical appraisal of the treatment of war in children's reading during the 20th century

covering World War I World War II and subsequent wars including Vietnam the Gulf War and the war in the Balkans The Mammoth Book of Best War Comics David Kendall,2007 30 of the greatest graphic short stories ever produced on the theme of war Reading Visual Narratives Clare Painter,J.R.
