s rapidly evolving world the erosion of individual character is increasingly evident Values based societies require vigilant character development to sustain ethical behavior across public and private life Building Character The Values Journal is intended to provide a tool to assist on the journey toward character development Building Character is rooted in the deliberate execution of four core principles discipline practice challenge yourself and seek wisdom Parents as the guides on this journey are asked to provide a good example and to leverage smart empowerment responsibility and preparation to encourage their children to succeed in discovering their true character While children are challenged to learn by doing practice and challenging themselves on their journey to shape themselves into the type of person they want to be The method used in the Values Journal is for each individual to explore their own understanding of the thirty one values included in the journal As a part of this process each individual is asked to structure an approach that works with their schedule i e daily weekly monthly to review Bible references related to each value write his own definition of each value review the questions and provide relevant answers and use the free expression pages to journal his results in a way that helps to personalize his experiences

Building Character Charles L. Davis II,2019-09-06 In the nineteenth century paradigm of architectural organicism the notion that buildings possessed character provided architects with a lens for relating the buildings they designed to the populations they served Advances in scientific race theory enabled designers to think of race and style as manifestations of natural law just as biological processes seemed to inherently regulate the racial characters that made humans a perfect fit for their geographical contexts architectural characters became a rational product of design Parallels between racial and architectural characters provided a rationalist model of design that fashioned some of the most influential national building styles of the past from the pioneering concepts of French structural rationalism and German tectonic theory to the nationalist associations of the Chicago Style the Prairie Style and the International Style In Building Character Charles Davis traces the racial charge of the architectural writings of five modern theorists Eugene Emmanuel Viollet le Duc Gottfried Semper Louis Sullivan Frank Lloyd Wright and William Lescaze to highlight the social political and historical significance of the spatial structural and ornamental elements of modern architectural styles
