The Letter:

Legitimation in the Letter to the Hebrews Iutisone Salevao,2002-06-18 This book adopts an inter disciplinary approach to the study of the theology symbolism and argument of Hebrews Employing sociological models the book examines Hebrews in the context of the early Christians construction and maintenance of a social world In that respect the book elaborates the thesis that Hebrews was designed to serve a legitimating function in the realm of social interaction that its theology symbolism and argument were designed to construct and maintain the symbolic universe of the community of the readers It is argued that we cannot properly understand the theology symbolism and argument of Hebrews apart from its first century context

Paul the Letter-writer Jerome Murphy-O'Connor,1995 How did Paul use his secretaries Did he rely on co authors Did his rhetorical education affect the way he organised his material This book confronts these questions on the basis of extensive quotations from classical Greek and Latin authors A synoptic survey of the beginnings and ends of the letters brings out the extent to which Paul both used and adapted current epistolary conventions The intention of the book is to humanize the Pauline letters and make their complex theology less daunting Adapted from back cover

Paul the Letter-writer and the Second Letter to Timothy Michael Prior,1989-01-01 This study argues for new perspectives on the letters of Paul especially the Second Letter to Timothy It examines striking aspects of Paul s letters especially the fact that many of them are co authored that six of them acknowledge that a secretary has penned the letter and that 1 Timothy 2 Timothy and Titus are the only ones addressed to individuals It investigates the implications of these facts for the concept of Pauline authorship Prior maintains that the received arguments statistical as well as literary which exclude 2 Timothy from the influence of Paul are less than convincing The author suggests an original reading of 2 Timothy arguing it was composed by Paul towards the end of his first Roman imprisonment Contrary to all interpretations of the letter which argue that Paul was about to be martyred Prior claims that Paul was confident that he would be released and was assembling a mission team to bring his proclamation of the Gospel to a completion Timothy s courage and missionary zeal needed rekindling for he and Mark were to be key figures in this new team
