The Salt Eaters:

The Salt Eaters Toni Cade Bambara, 1992-06-30 A community of Black faith healers witness an event that will change their lives forever in this hard nosed wise funny novel Los Angeles Times One of The Atlantic s Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years Set in a fictional city in the American South the novel also inhabits the nonlinear sacred space and sacred time of traditional African religion The New York Times Book Review Though they all united in their search for the healing properties of salt some of them are centered some are off balance some are frightened and some are daring From the men who live off welfare women to the mud mothers who carry their children in their hides the novel brilliantly explores the narcissistic aspect of despair and the tremendous responsibility that comes with physical spiritual and mental well being

Duran, 2007-01-01 New work on women thinkers often makes the point that philosophical conceptual thought is where we find it examples such as Simone de Beauvoir and the nineteenth century Black American writer Anna Julia Cooper assure us that there is ample room for the development of philosophy in literary works but as yet there has been no single unifying attempt to trace such projects among a variety of women novelists This book articulates philosophical concerns in the work of five well known twentieth century women writers including writers of color Duran traces the development of philosophical themes ontological ethical and feminist in the writings of Margaret Drabble Virginia Woolf Simone de Beauvoir Toni Cade Bambara and Elena Poniatowska presenting both a general overview of the author s work with an emphasis on traditional philosophical questions and a detailed feminist reading of the work Breathing Aesthetics Jean-Thomas

Tremblay, 2022-08-29 In Breathing Aesthetics Jean Thomas Tremblay argues that difficult breathing indexes the uneven distribution of risk in a contemporary era marked by the increasing contamination weaponization and monetization of air Tremblay shows how biopolitical and necropolitical forces tied to the continuation of extractive capitalism imperialism and structural racism are embodied and experienced through respiration They identify responses to the crisis in breathing in aesthetic practices ranging from the film work of Cuban American artist Ana Mendieta to the disability diaries of Bob Flanagan to the Black queer speculative fiction of Renee Gladman In readings of these and other minoritarian works of experimental film endurance performance ecopoetics and cinema v rit Tremblay contends that articulations of survival now depend on the management and dispersal of respiratory hazards In so doing they reveal how an aesthetic attention to breathing generates historically culturally and environmentally situated tactics and strategies for living under precarity

Novel Competition Evan Brier,2024-04-16 Novel Competition describes the literary and institutional effort to make the American novel matter after 1965 During this era Hollywood movies popular music and other forms of mass produced culture vied with novels for a specific kind of prestige often figured as importance or relevance that had mostly been attached to novels in previous decades This trans media competition Brier argues is a crucial but largely unacknowledged event in the literary and economic history of the American novel In the face of it the novel lost some of the symbolic specialness it formerly held That loss in turn generated not just a much discussed rhetoric of crisis but also a host of unexamined intertwined effects on both literary form and the business of novel production Drawing on a range of novels and on the archives of publishers editors agents and authors Novel Competition shows how fiction s declining position in a transformed popular prestige economy reshaped the post 1965 American novel as art form cultural institution and commodity
