War According To Anna:

The War According to Anna K. C. Chadwick, 2005-11 Someone once said Some things we see too soon for them to make an impression That is Anna s story She didn t know the meaning of rape or that her mother was living the war on a different level but Anna did know that all beautiful women were part of the spoils of war Bombed shot at walking on feet bleeding with broken blisters Anna s mother wheeled two infants in a baby carriage followed by Anna and her brother pulling a children s wagon through the exited rapacious and advancing Russian Army And through dead and wounded Germans It is a story of extraordinary grit and determination The more you read the more you will love Anna and admire her mother
