A Tale of Two Worlds David D. Stanfield,2010-11-10 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth and from that point on the story becomes vague and a little confusing Hidden in the pages of the Holy Bible are distinct clues that would lead one to believe that this world and God s wondrous creation have been here before While Adam and Eve are the first of this present generation there may have been others long before Adams time that walked this very earth The Bible is the divine word of God and does not lie therefore a curious reader should take into consideration the words written there in concerning this other age not as sacrilegious or condescending speech but on face vale and at least listen to the tale of two worlds that needs to be told You will be astonished at how all that has been done before has been forgotten and yet it all plays a part in God s gift of salvation to mankind
