Disabilities: Responses : practice, legal, and political frameworks Catherine A. Marshall, 2009 In these unprecedented volumes authors from around the world spotlight the latest knowledge on disability including the social legal and political issues that come to bear on people with disability These authors are researchers practitioners people with disability and family members Through their experiences they share with us the nature of disability the challenges people with disabilities face approaches to disability around the world and promising efforts for rehabilitation that are on the horizon We also learn in these volumes about social actions that have advanced human rights for people with disabilities in countries around the world Yet we learn that in these same countries discriminatory actions against people with disabilities

continue to occur The impact of different cultural beliefs about disability are explored and these beliefs are juxtaposed against legislative responses In all three volumes people with disabilities share their personal narratives about events they have faced in society They provide rich examples of how culture social interactions and legislation can impact on people
