The Stone Diaries Carol Shields, 2008-09-30 In celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of its original publication Carol Shields's Pulitzer Prize winning novel is now available in a Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition One of the most successful and acclaimed novels of our time this fictionalized autobiography of Daisy Goodwill Flett is a subtle but affecting portrait of an everywoman reflecting on an unconventional life What transforms this seemingly ordinary tale is the richness of Daisy's vividly described inner life from her earliest memories of her adoptive mother to her awareness of impending death For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

The Stone Diaries Carol Shields, 2008 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize the National Book Critics Circle Award and the Governor General's Award and short listed for the Booker Prize The Stone Diaries is the story of one woman's life a truly sensuous novel which reflects and illuminates the unsettled decades of our century New York Magazine, 1994-03-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Companion to Literature Abby H. P. Werlock, 2009 Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student Researchers RUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates The Palgrave Handbook of Animals and Literature Susan McHugh, Robert McKay, John Miller, 2020-11-25 This volume is the first comprehensive guide to current research on animals animality and human animal relations in literature To reflect the history of literary animal studies to date its primary focus is literary prose and poetry in English while also accommodating emergent discussions of the full range of media and contexts with which literary studies engages especially film and critical theory User friendly language references even suggestions for further readings are included to help newcomers to the field understand how it has taken shape primarily through recent decades To further aid teachers sections are organized by conventions of periodization and chapters address a range of canonical and popular texts Bookended by sections devoted to the field's conceptual foundations and new directions the volume is designed to set an agenda for literary animal studies for decades to come

Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields's work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields s work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields s verve and her playful approach to today s sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields s use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields s most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction

The Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Nicola Wilson, Claire Battershill, Sophie Heywood, MARRISA JOSEPH, Daniela La Penna, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley and Elizabeth Willson Gordon, 2024-02-29 Women s creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women s diverse deeply embedded work in modern publishing Highlighting the value of networks collaboration and archives the companion sets out new ways of reading women s contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures With an international intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere The book combines new work on high profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women s work as translators illustrators booksellers advertisers patrons and publisher s readers complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today The first collection of its kind the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field

Prizing Literature Gillian Roberts, 2011-01-01 When Canadian authors win prestigious literary prizes from the Governor General s Literary Award to the Man Booker Prize they are celebrated not only for their achievements but also for contributing to this country s cultural capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation     Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel,2023-01-01 This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields's experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction Shields's essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields's writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction These essays read Shields's fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction
