Stories From Yard:

How Long is a Yard? Stories to Read and Tell Cyril James Davey, 1966 Stories from Yard Alecia McKenzie, 2005 Fear and bitterness pollute the ground from which the characters of these stories mostly young and female struggle to grow With so many bad seeds mostly male taking root around them with sexual violence neglectful and brutal fathers jealousy lies and prejudice obscuring their light their blossoming is always under threat But in these diverse subtly constructed stories there is often a glimmer of hope in a girl s tentative resistance to general prejudice about madmen or in the silence on a phone line between estranged friends where forgiveness may or may not come In the stories set in Jamaica life is hard and the comforts of away are idealized But in the cold of the streets of the North there is no passport to success for the people of yard Only their resilience optimism humour and friendship and the comforts of beer and ganja help them make their way And in the diaspora dance of the different immigrant nations struggling to find their place in Europe or North America new connections and new possibilities are being created But if these stories are coolly unsentimental there is also room for humour and moments of joy as when Marie a middle aged Jamaican reggae singer finds the sweet flavour of cane juice lingering on her young Brazilian lover s tongue Alecia McKenzie was born and grew up in Kingston Jamaica Her short stories

Early Years Stories from the Front 50th Anniversary Edition is a firsthand historical account of the transformation of the Consolidated Rail Corporation from a government created rescue of six bankrupt railroads into one of the most successful freight railroads in the United States Formed in 1976 amid widespread skepticism Conrail faced enormous operational
