Sweet Hereafter:

The Sweet Hereafter Russell Banks, 1997-09-08 When fourteen children from the small town of Sam Dent are lost in a tragic accident its citizens are confronted with one of life's most difficult and disturbing questions When the worst happens whom do you blame and how do you cope Masterfully written it is a large hearted novel that brings to life a cast of unforgettable small town characters and illuminates the mysteries and realities of love as well as grief The Sweet Hereafter was released as a major motion picture by Atom Egoyan in 1997 and won the Grand Prix at the Cannes Film Festival Egoyan also received Academy Award nominations for Best Director and Best Adapted Screenplay that year

Image and Territory Jennifer Burwell, Monique Tschofen, 2007 In a culture that often understands formal experimentation or theoretical argument to be antithetical to pleasure Atom Egoyan has nevertheless consistently appealed to wide audiences around the world If films like The Adjuster Calendar Exotica and The Sweet Hereafter have ensured him international cult status as one of the most revered of all contemporary directors Egoyan's forays into installation art and opera have provided evidence of his versatility and confirmed his talents Throughout his career Atom Egoyan has shown himself to possess the rarest kind of singularity As Jonathan Romney puts it Egoyan's preoccupations and tropes have been so consistent that he's practically created his own genre<sup>3</sup> 1995 8 Hrag Vartanian adds 2Egoyanesque has become a word to film aficionados commonly understood to mean a cinematic moment that examines sexuality technology and alienation in the modern world<sup>3</sup> 2004 For this singularity Egoyan is widely hailed as a true auteur someone carrying on the legacy of the European art house traditions of Bergman Godard and Truffaut Certainly his work bears a most recognizable signature there is no confusing an Egoyan work with anyone else's Like his art house predecessors Egoyan clearly intends that his work be as Dudley Andrew puts it 2read rather than consumed 3 that is viewed meditatively reflected upon and discussed 2000 24 And indeed in this world in which filmmaking has become commonplace where as Egoyan has said 2what used to be a rarified activity is now available to anyone with a digital camera and a computer<sup>3</sup> 2001b 18 he intends through much of his work to recall an earlier image culture in which artists had an ability to produce something that gained its power precisely through its rarity

Atom Egoyan Emma Wilson, 2009-01-21 The films of Canadian Armenian director Atom Egoyan immerse the viewer in a world of lush sensuality melancholia and brooding obsession From his earliest films Next of Kin and Family Viewing to his coruscating Exotica and recent projects such as Where the Truth Lies Egoyan has paid infinite attention to narrative intricacy and psychological complexity Traumatic loss and its management through ritual return as themes in his films in particular in relation to his own Armenian heritage In this study Emma Wilson closely analyzes the range of Egoyan's films and their visual textures emotional control and perverse beauty Egoyan's own comments on his films thread throughout Wilson's analyses and the book features a recent interview with the director

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity

Where are the Voices Coming From? Coral Ann Howells, 2004 This collection of essays focuses on Canadian history and its legacies as represented in novels and films in English and French produced in Canada mainly in the 1980s and 1990s The approach is both cross cultural and interdisciplinary aiming at articulating Canadian differences through a comparison of anglophone and francophone cultures illustrated by works treating some of the different groups which make up Canadian society English Canadian Qu becois Acadian Native and ethnic minorities The emphasis is on the problematic representation of Canadianness which is closely bound up with constructions of history and its legacies dispossession criminality nomadism Gothicism the Maritime The English French language difference is emblematic of Canadian difference the two part arrangement with one section on Literature and the other on Film sets up the pattern of relationships between the two forms of cultural representation that these essays explore Essays in the Literature section are on single texts by such writers as Margaret Atwood Tomson Highway Ann Marie MacDonald Anne Michaels and Alice Munro Gabrielle Roy Anne H bert Antonine Maillet Bernard Assiniwi and R gine Robin The Film section with its mirror structure both supplements and amplifies this dialogue extending notions of Canadianness with its emphasis on voices from Quebec and Acadia traditionally othered in Canadian history Filmmakers treated include Phillip Borsos Atom Egoyan Ted Kotcheff Mort Ransen and Vincent Ward Denys Arcand Gilles Carle Alanis Obomsawin L a Pool and Jacques Savoie
