The Light That Failed By Rudyard Kipling, 2020-10-09 In 1878 Kipling was admitted to the United Services College at Westward Ho Devon a school founded a few years earlier to prepare boys for the armed forces The school proved rough going for him at first but led to firm friendships provided the setting for his schoolboy stories Stalky Co published years later During his time there he met fell in love with Florence Garrard the model for Maisie in his 1st novel The Light That Failed initially published in 1890 in Lippincott s Monthly Magazine Dick Helder is a war correspondent an artist known for the drawings he sends home to the London papers from wars in exotic places like Sudan When he returns to London he attempts to make a career for himself as a serious artist encounters his childhood sweetheart Maisie They fall in love Then he learns that a minor problem with his eyes is actually the onset of blindness incurable the result of a head wound he took during the war As his vision fails the light of everything around him his life his hopes his dreams fail with it There are terrible choices to be made between the love of the woman he treasures the love of the men who stood by him at the front

The Light that Failed Ivan Krastev, Stephen Holmes, 2019-10-31 A landmark book that completely transforms our understanding of the crisis of liberalism from two pre eminent intellectuals Why did the West after winning the Cold War lose its political balance In the early 1990s hopes for the eastward spread of liberal democracy were high And yet the transformation of Eastern European countries gave rise to a bitter repudiation of liberalism itself not only there but also back in the heartland of the West In this brilliant work of political psychology Ivan Krastev and Stephen Holmes argue that the supposed end of history turned out to be only the beginning of an Age of Imitation Reckoning with the history of the last thirty years they show that the most powerful force behind the wave of populist xenophobia that began in Eastern Europe stems from resentment at the post 1989 imperative to become Westernized Through this prism the Trump revolution represents an ironic fulfillment of the promise that the nations exiting from communist rule would come to resemble the United States In a strange twist Trump has elevated Putin s Russia and Orb n s Hungary into models for the United States Written by two pre eminent intellectuals bridging the East West divide The Light that Failed is a landmark book that sheds light on the extraordinary history of our Age of Imitation
