Every child needs nature. Not just the ones with parents who appreciate nature. Not only those of a certain economic class or culture or set of abilities. Every child.

Who Needs Nature:

Helping Nature in Need Sarah Eason, 2023-02-01 Earth is under threat Today our planet faces huge challenges as a result of human actions The time has come to replace those negative actions with positive ones it s time to take eco action Readers will discover how environmental action is protecting our natural world and how organizations everywhere are taking action to help protect our planet Readers will also learn how they too can take eco action and help save planet Earth This call to action series explains the effect negative human actions have on our planet They are contrasted with positive actions organizations are taking to reverse and reduce the damage caused and positive actions that readers too can take to help protect the planet Children will feel empowered by guidance that explains how they can nurture our planet build a more sustainable future and even carve out a career in environmental care

Integrated Landscapes in Policy, Practice and Everyday Life Kathryn Moore, Anastasia Nikologianni, Alex Albans, Paul Cureton, 2025-06-27 Exploring the ways in which an integrated landscape vision can help deliver regional national and international agendas this book investigates how a new idea of landscape can reimagine governance policy economics culture identity health transport and development priorities by connecting in a more powerful and meaningful way with local aspirations and demands Developed in fieldwork undertaken over the last decade the capacity of a landscape led approach to deal with problems such as rapid urbanisation water and food security climate change air pollution and health is both timely and topical Divided into three main sections it includes illustrated case studies from the UK Europe East Asia South Asia and more As part of a strategy to capture build and disseminate expertise in this approach the book aims to develop an interdisciplinary body of work that will appeal to academics and professionals by bringing together a number of contributors who are operating at the cutting edge of landscape led large scale transformation This book is essential for practitioners and academics of landscape architecture as well as students in the architecture and design fields

Becoming Nature Positive Marco Lambertini, Joseph W. Bull, Leroy Little Bear, Harvey Locke, Eva Zabey, Dorothy Maseke, Carlos Manuel Rodríguez, 2025-06-02 As humanity sits at an existential crossroads this book introduces the need to build a nature positive future to secure the functioning and stability of Earth systems essential to the survival and wellbeing of present and future human generations as well as the rest of Earth s amazing diversity of life Alongside the change in climate a more silent but equally terrifying crisis is unfolding the loss of nature and biodiversity These twin crises are in fact interconnected After decades of ignoring our impacts on the natural world we are beginning to realise that nature conservation is a security issue for humanity and an imperative for intersectional and intergenerational justice For these reasons we must embrace a transition from a nature negative to a nature positive society one that ensures human development and addresses today s inequality while conserving restoring and sustainably benefiting from nature s resources and services A Nature Positive future is one with more nature than today more forests more fish more pollinators more soil biodiversity with benefits for the Planet and for us In this book we define what becoming Nature Positive means from a variety of perspectives what it takes to deliver it and why it is possible and most importantly necessary This book is essential reading for those concerned with conserving nature and securing a safe future for humanity in the face of climate breakdown biodiversity loss and ecological collapse The future can be bright The choice is ours

The Rise and Fall of Rational Control Harvey Claflin Mansfield,2026-01-20 Harvey C Mansfield traces the birth of modern political philosophy to Machiavelli s brief on behalf of rational control of human affairs which became the basis of liberalism But Rousseau Kant Marx and Hegel all issued challenges and finally Nietzsche doubted reason entirely Mansfield asks how we can extract ourselves from Nietzsche s trap
