King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2014-03-05 What kind of social studies knowledge can stimulate a critical and ethical dialog with the past and present Re-Membering History in Student and Teacher Learning answers this question by explaining and illustrating a process of historical recovery that merges Afrocentric theory and principles of culturally informed curricular practice to reconnect multiple knowledge bases and experiences In the case studies presented K 12 practitioners teacher educators preservice teachers and parents use this praxis to produce and then study the use of democratized student texts they step outside of reproducing standard school experiences to engage in conscious inquiry about their shared present as a continuance of a shared past This volume exemplifies not only why instructional materials including most so called multicultural materials obstruct democratized knowledge but also takes the next step to construct and then study how re-membered student texts can be used Case study findings reveal improved student outcomes enhanced relationships between teachers and families and teachers and students and a closer connection

Olga Schihalejev,2010 This case study contributes to discussions about religious education and its relation to young people s concerns and to social cohesion in Estonia However the book also makes an important contribution to the international debate about religions and education It brings together empirical studies conducted in Estonia in the framework of a major European project REDCo Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a factor of Conflict in transforming societies of European Countries setting the research in the context of wider international debates The mixed methods research investigates the attitudes of 14 16 years old Estonians towards religion and religious diversity exploring their views on the role of the school in promoting dialogue and tolerance among representatives of different worldviews and establishing the ways in which their experience of religious education affects their views on these issues Dr Schihalejev draws on three of her empirical studies each utilising a different methodology The qualitative and the quantitative studies investigate students attitudes to religion and religious diversity while two contrasting classroom based studies of religious education explore patterns of interaction both using video ethnography and incident analysis respectively to collect and interpret the data Grounded in the findings of the empirical studies the author explores dialogical pedagogies for non confessional approaches to religious education and discusses policies for strengthening active tolerance in the school context Dr Olga Schihalejev is a researcher and a lecturer in the Faculty of Theology at Tartu University Estonia She has worked as a teacher of religious education and has written teaching learning resources for students in Estonia She is a board member of the Estonian RE Teachers Association actively involved in improving the national syllabus for RE and organising annual conferences for RE teachers in Estonia She worked on the EC Framework 6 project REDCo Religion in Education A contribution to dialogue or a factor of conflict in transforming societies of European Countries Within the REDCo Project her research was on how religion is perceived by young people in a secular context Additionally she is interested in the perception of religion and tolerance by different ethnic groups in Estonia Her current research interest is the study of the competences young teachers of different subjects have for implemeting values education

Teaching and Research Methods for Islamic Economics and Finance Mohd Ma'Sum Billah,2022-03-10 Methods and techniques adopted in teaching training learning research professional development or capacity building are generally standardized across most traditional disciplines particularly within developing countries This is not the case however when it comes to the Islamic disciplines and in particular in relation to the study of Islamic economics and finance which is influenced by conventional standards and techniques This is primarily due to the lack of availability of the requisite standards and mechanisms designed within the spirit of Maqsid al Shari ah This book offers a unique resource and a comprehensive overview of the contemporary methods and smart techniques available for teaching learning and researching Islamic eco finance and it presents solutions to the challenges in implementing them Further the book gives deep insight into the most appropriate methodologies that could be employed empirically to explore model analyze and evaluate Islamic finance theories and models respectively It also gives recommendations for improving learning teaching and research outcomes in Islamic eco finance The book also addresses how in this advanced technological era smart tools like artificial intelligence machine learning big data Zoom and the internet of things can be adapted to help equip students researchers and scholars with smart skills The book will enable those studying Islamic economics and finance to grasp the appropriate tools for research and learning Additionally the Islamic economics and finance sector is growing at a significant rate and therefore requires the upskilling and capacity building of its human resources thus the book will also be highly beneficial for practitioners involved in the industry

The SAT and College Preparation Course for the Christian Student James P. Stobaugh,1998-12 Worldview Michael Rost,2005

The Top Books of the Year Worldview 2a Student The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Worldview 2a Student : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
