Notable Speeches in Contemporary Presidential Campaigns Robert V. Friedenberg,2002-03-30 Though many studies of contemporary campaigns focus on brief political advertisements and the growing impact of technology on contemporary campaigns the definitive statements of most candidates are still made in public addresses Friedenberg examines the first public address made by an American presidential candidate on his own behalf The circumstances giving rise to William Henry Harrison s 1840 address and the themes that he developed in that address are strikingly contemporary serving as an appropriate prelude to the examinations of contemporary political speaking that follow Those examinations focus on notable campaign speeches by John F Kennedy Barry Goldwater Richard Nixon Ronald Reagan Bill and Hillary Clinton and George W Bush Each study examines a key event that foreshadowed the speech studied Each study presents a rhetorical biography of the speaker including a discussion of the speechwriting team and preparation techniques utilized by the speaker Each study presents a thorough study of the campaign context in which the speeches were presented Each also presents a close reading and rhetorical analysis of the speech itself and observations on the impact of the speech Cumulatively Friedenberg s studies help to illustrate how even in today s high tech political environment of 30 second ads and candidate Web sites public speeches continue to play a crucial role in political campaigning Of particular interest to scholars and students involved with political communication and political American campaigning

Ronald Reagan David T. Byrne,2018-11-01 In this ambitious work David T Byrne analyzes the ideas that informed Ronald Reagan s political philosophy and policies Rather than appraising Reagan s personal and emotional life Byrne s intellectual biography goes one step further it establishes a rationale for the former president s motives discussing how thinkers such as Plato and Adam Smith influenced him Byrne points to three historical forces that shaped Reagan s political philosophy Christian values particularly the concept of a universal kingdom of God America s firm belief in freedom as the greatest political value and its aversion to strong centralized government and the appeasement era of World War II which stimulated Reagan s aggressive and confrontational foreign policy Byrne s account of the fortieth president augments previous work on Reagan with a new model for understanding him Byrne shows how Reagan took conservatism and the Republican Party in a new direction departing from the traditional conservatism of Edmund Burke and Russell Kirk His desire to spread a Kingdom of Freedom both at home and abroad changed America s political landscape forever and inspired a new conservatism that persists to this day
