Dad's Custody Edge Ashley L. Johansen, 2026-02-10 When custody turns hostile love alone is not enough to protect your relationship with your children Many fathers enter divorce believing that fairness honesty and good intentions will carry weight in family court Instead they encounter a system that rewards documentation consistency and emotional control while quietly punishing reactivity frustration and unpreparedness Dad s Custody Edge was written for fathers who refuse to lose time with their children simply because they didn t understand the rules of the game This is not a book about venting or blame It is a strategic playbook Fathers don t lose custody because they lack love They lose custody because they react emotionally communicate impulsively and fail to document their involvement in ways courts recognize as credible evidence Angry texts social media posts missed routines and poorly handled conflict are routinely weaponized often long before a father realizes what went wrong Once early mistakes are made the damage is difficult to reverse This book exists to stop that from happening Inside this step by step guide you will learn how to Shift from emotional reaction to disciplined legal positioning Understand how family courts actually evaluate fathers Build a court ready father profile based on stability and consistency Document parenting time conflict and involvement with legal weight Communicate using judge friendly language that protects credibility Neutralize gatekeeping and false allegations without escalation Protect visitation during the critical temporary orders phase Demonstrate readiness for 50 50 custody through action not promises Avoid the most common mistakes that permanently reduce parenting time Every strategy is designed to be immediately actionable even under intense emotional pressure Unlike generic divorce books Dad s Custody Edge does not rely on theory or wishful thinking It shows you how to operate like the parent courts trust calm organized predictable and child focused You learn how to think several moves ahead how to avoid traps designed to provoke you and how to create a clean evidentiary record that speaks louder than accusations ever could This guide is ideal for fathers facing high conflict divorces manipulative co parenting dynamics or custody disputes where the stakes are nothing less than daily access to their children You are not powerless You simply need the edge Custody battles are not won by outrage or explanations They are won by preparation discipline and strategy Stop reacting Start positioning yourself to win what matters most Order your copy of Dad s Custody Edge today and begin protecting your parental rights securing maximum visitation and building a future where your role as a father is no longer negotiable
