FOR a long time I used to go to bed early. Sometimes when I had put out my candle, my eyes would close so quickly that I had not even time to say I'm going to sleep. And half an hour later the thought that it was time to go to sleep would awaken me. I would try to put away the book which I imagined was still in my hands, and to blow out the light I had been thinking all the time while I was asleep of what I had just been reading, but my thoughts had run into a channel of their own until I myself seemed actually to have become the subject of my book: a church, a quartet, the rivalry between François I and Charles V.
