Marjorie Cohee Manifold,2017-11-20 Flexible in approach and full of colorful examples this textbook provides a basic introduction to what art is and can be in the lives of people who do not necessarily think of themselves as artists You will be taught about a variety of art themes genres materials and processes that appeal to novice art makers The lessons are organized by themes of general subject matter or media Options are available for work in mixed media crafts photography and digital media as well as in traditional drawing or painting media After picking a theme of particular interest to you look next at the four strands of lessons presented in that thematic unit Moving from left to right select one lesson from each consecutive strand and complete that lesson Because each lesson builds upon previously presented knowledge and developed skill as you progress through four lessons one from each strand you should grow in your understanding of art concepts meanings and processes while also improving your art making skills Completing this course will help you develop a new appreciation for the power and possibilities of art learning by understanding better the art others create as well as making it

Staging Fashion Tiziana Ferrero-Regis, Marissa Lindquist, 2020-12-10

The fashion show and its spaces are sites of otherness representing everything from rebellion and excess through to political and social activism This conceptual and stylistic variety is reflected in the spaces they occupy whether they are staged in an industrial warehouse on a city street or out in the open landscape

Staging Fashion is the first collection of essays about the presentation and staging of fashion in runway shows in the period from the 1960s to the 2010s It offers a fresh perspective on the many collaborations between artists architects and interior designers to reinforce their interdisciplinary links Fashion architecture and interiors share many elements including design history material culture aesthetics and trends The research and ideas underpinning Staging Fashion address how fashion and the spatial fields have collaborated in the creation of the space of the fashion show The 15 essays are written by fashion interior architecture and design scholars focusing on the presentation of fashion within the runway space from avant garde practices and collaboration with artists to the most spectacular and commercial shows of recent years from Prada to Chanel
