The Life and Genius of Nathaniel Hawthorne Frank Preston Stearns, 1906 Excerpt of their little red cottage which has since unfortunately been destroyed by fire She even began to give her daughter who was only six years old some instruction in drawing The following extract concerning her husband from a letter written to her mother is charmingly significant of her state of mind at this time Beauty and the love of it in him are the true culmination of the good and true and there is no beauty to him without these bases He has perfect dominion over himself in every respect so that to do the highest wisest loveliest thing is not the least effort to him any more than it is to a baby to be innocent It is his spontaneous act and a baby is not more unconscious in its innocence I never knew such loftiness so simply borne I have never known him to stoop from it in the most trivial household matter any more than in a larger or more public one Footnote J Hawthorne i 373 Truly this gives us a beautiful insight into their home life and Hawthorne himself could not have written a more accurate eulogium As intimated in the last chapter we all make our way through life by correcting our daily trespasses and Hawthorne was no exception to it but as a mental analysis of this man at his best Mrs Hawthorne s statement deserves a lasting recognition THE HOUSE OF THE SEVEN GABLES It was not until early frosts and shortening days drove Hawthorne within doors that he again took up his writing but who can tell how long he had been dreaming over his subject Within five months or by the last week of January The House of the Seven Gables was ready for the press There is no such house in Salem exactly as he describes it but an odd antiquated looking structure at No 54 Turner Street is supposed to have served him for the suggestion of it The name is picturesque and well suited to introduce the reader to a homely suburban romance The subject of the story goes back to the witchcraft period and its active Hall's Journal of Health ,1894 The Jewish Quarterly Review ,1925
