Richard I. Ruggles

Snake Country:

Snake Country/Classified! ,2007 In Snake country a fictional work a group of students learn about snakes first hand when one student is bitten by a snake on a field trip Classified describes taxonomy and systems of classification for living things A Country So Interesting Richard I. Ruggles,1991-02-01 A vital part of A Country So Interesting are the annotated catalogues of all the maps known to have been produced by the Hudson s Bay Company 838 maps and 557 sketches While most are in the Company s archives in Manitoba Ruggles has tracked down maps in other collections particularly in various libraries in London England Also included are sixty six reproductions of the most important maps and map details North American Exploration John Logan Allen,1997-01-01 The third volume of North American Exploration covering 1784 to 1914 charts a dramatic shift in the purpose priorities and results of the exploration of North America As the nineteenth century opened exploration was still fostered by the growth of empire but by the 1830s commercial interests came to drive most exploratory ventures particularly through the fur trade By midcentury however as imperial rivalries lessened and the fur trade declined exploration was driven by the growing scientific spirit of the age although the science was often conducted in the service of a search for railroad routes or natural resources linked to military concerns A clear transition took place as the spirit of the Enlightenment gave way to economic imperatives and to the science of the post Darwinian age and exploration passed beyond discovery and geographical definition This volume explores the resultant beginnings of an understanding of the continent and its native peoples Iroquois in the West Jean Barman,2019-03-04 Two centuries ago many hundreds of Iroquois principally from what is now Kahnaw ke left home without leaving behind their ways of life Recruited to man the large canoes that transported trade goods and animal pelts from and to Montreal some Iroquois soon returned while others were enticed ever further west by the rapidly expanding fur trade Recounting stories of Indigenous self determination and self sufficiency Iroquois in the West tracks four clusters of travellers across time place and generations a band that settled in Montana another ranging across the American West others opting for British Columbia and the Pacific Northwest and a group in Alberta who were evicted when their longtime home became Jasper National Park Reclaiming slivers of Iroquois knowledge anecdotes and memories from the shadows of the past Jean Barman draws on sources that range from descendants recollections to fur trade and government records to travellers accounts What becomes clear is that no matter the places or the circumstances the Iroquois never abandoned their senses of self Opening up new ways of thinking about Indigenous peoples through time Iroquois in the West shares the fascinating adventures of a people who have waited over two hundred years to be heard Contested Empire John Phillip Reid,2002 Do law and legal procedures exist only so long as there is an official authority to enforce them Or do we have an unspoken sense of law and ethics To answer these questions John Phillip Reid s Contested Empire explores the implicit notions of law shared by American and British fur traders in the Snake River country of Idaho and surrounding areas in the early nineteenth century Both the United States and Great Britain had claimed this region and passions were intense Focusing mainly on Canadian explorer and trader Peter Skene Ogden Reid finds that both side largely avoided violence and other difficulties because they held the same definitions of property contract conversion and possession In 1824 the Hudson s Bay Company directed Ogden to decimate the furbearing animal population of the Snake River country thus marking the region a fur desert With this mandate Great Britain hoped to neutralize any interest American furtrappers could have in the area Such a mandate set British and American fur men on a collision course but Ogden and his American counterparts implicitly followed a kind of law and procedure and observed a mutual sense of property and rights even as the two sides vied for control of the fur trade Failing to take legal culture into consideration some previous accounts have depicted these conflicts as mere episodes of lawless frontier violence Reid expands our understanding of the West by considering the unspoken sense of law that existed despite the lack of any formalized authorities in what had otherwise been considered a lawless time Country Life in America Liberty Hyde Bailey, Henry Hodgman Saylor, 1907 Country Life ,1904 Home and Country ,1894 Western Americana Anderson Galleries, Inc, 1923 Idaho Chronology, Nomenclature, Bibliography John E. Rees, 1918 House Documents USA House of Representatives, 1872 The American Fur Trade of the Far West Hiram Martin Chittenden, 1901 The Country Gentleman ,1925 The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of the northwest coast. 1886 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1886 The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler, 1923 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of the northwest coast. 1884 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1886 The Boy Scout's Hike Book Edward Cave, 1920 History of the Northwest Coast: 1543-1800 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1890 Origin of Washington Geographic Names Edmond Stephen Meany, 1923 Eleven Years in the Rocky Mountains and Life on the Frontier Frances Fuller Victor, 1879
