

That Fatal Night

William Gilmore Simms

That Fatal Night:

That Fatal Night Sarah Ellis, 2011 In the aftermath of the Titanic disaster a young girl must come to terms with haunting memories from the voyage It is May 1912 one month after the horrific sinking of the Titanic and twelve year old survivor Dorothy Wilton is sent home from school in disgrace when she strikes another student Although she is expelled her sympathetic teacher encourages Dorothy to write an account of her experience on the ship with the hopes that it will help Dorothy come to terms with her trauma And so begins a truly remarkable story which reads like a time capsule of the era Dorothy writes about visiting her bohemian grandparents in England before setting sail back home the luxurious rooms and cabins on board a new friend she makes and the intriguing people they observe However amidst all of this storytelling a shadow lurks a secret Dorothy is too traumatized to acknowledge a secret about her own actions on that fatal night which may have had deadly consequences Through young Dorothy's eyes award winning writer Sarah Ellis expertly takes a unique perspective on the Titanic tragedy exploring the concept of survivor's guilt with devastating honesty That Fatal Night,
