However each nation has a story of its own in terms of professionalization of social work in the evolution of public welfare and philanthropic charitable undertaking within its particular economic political social and cultural settings A wide ranging and in depth study of various especially non Western country cases is essential to an adequate comprehensive understanding of the social work profession which is also a basic requirement of its value of diversity China is undoubtedly an important case with the largest population on earth It s also unique in view of so called Chinese characteristics which are sometimes fundamentally different from other particularly Western societies It s even intriguing given the country s lengthy complex history and its recent rapid rise to a global superpower with a claim of national goals and core values that seem to be rather considerable to social work as a helping profession Therefore any significant lessons learned from the Chinese experiences would help with a better international understanding and further advancement of social work and public welfare at a global scale
