THE SOCIALIZATION OF DOGS WITH ABNORMAL BEHAVIOR Sascha Bartz,2020-12-15 How can a dog with behavioral problems be trained And why do so many attempts to train untrained dogs fail The answer to the second question is the anthropomorphization of the dog and the inconsistent differentiation between socialization and education Thus on the one hand needs are attributed to the dog which he simply does not have and on the other hand attempts are made to socialize him by means of the methods of conditioning which are doomed to failure Conditioning however does not lead to insight as the psychologist says But the latter is the goal of education In addition there is a lack of compliance of the owners and the power of habits For a better understanding the author lets his therapy dog Neo tell the connections from his point of view in this book

The Behavioural Biology of Dogs Per Jensen, 2007 Written by experts in different areas this book presents an up to date account of the behavioural biology of dogs Split in 3 parts the book addresses the specific aspects of behavioural biology The first part deals with the evolution and development of the dog whereas the next part deals with basic aspects of dog behaviour The final part emphasises on the behavioural problems their prevention and cure
