quarter century has passed since Aarhus was opened for signature now is an opportune moment to revisit it from a fresh perspective Marking this anniversary this book explores Aarhus from the vista of the English School of International Relations an ethically minded perspective used to gauge the prevalence of state oriented and human oriented progress from the Convention s rationales and realities It firstly considers Aarhus propagation investigating the legal diplomatic and geopolitical contexts enabling its emergence It secondly investigates Aarhus germination with reference to its trinity of procedural rights Thirdly the book examines the Convention s growth in terms of the development of its organisational infrastructure The chief finding is that Aarhus demonstrates in environmental contexts the feasibility and benefit of fostering humankind solidarist progress rooted in moral cosmopolitanism within the existing power arrangements of a sovereignty based pluralism Pluralist concerns for diversity and international order are found to be a precondition for more ethically ambitious solidarist endeavours These observations reinforce the logic of solidarisation an English School innovation that presents sovereignty as a being ethically matured by solidarism whilst b delimiting solidarism within the threshold of states tolerance
