Liability for Insider Trading examines the reasons why there have been no successful criminal prosecutions or successful contested civil proceedings against corporations for insider trading and analyses the various rationales for prohibiting insider trading. It reviews the insider trading regulatory regime and describes its key features using both national and international examples. The book inspects a variety of criminal and civil models of corporate liability and considers the historical and theoretical basis on which corporations are subject to insider trading laws. The specific elements of the insider trading offence and the manner in which they are attributed to corporations are analysed in detail. Defences available to corporations such as Chinese Walls are explored and the obligations that are imposed on businesses as a result of insider trading regulation, security trading policies and notifications, continuous disclosure obligations and duties concerning conflicts of interest are detailed and examined. The book concludes with reform proposals intended to remedy the many legal and commercial difficulties identified in order that a new regulatory regime might be adopted to better serve regulators, businesses, investors and the broader market. This volume addresses these corporate law topics and will be of interest to researchers, academics, financial institution compliance officers, investment bankers, corporate and comparative lawyers and students and scholars in the fields of commercial law, corporate law, financial crime, company law and white collar crime.

Recollections of a Newspaperman Frank Aleamon Leach, 1917 Frank Aleamon Leach b 1846 published the Vallejo Evening Chronicle 1867-1886 and the Oakland Enquirer 1886-1898. He retired from journalism to become superintendent of the San Francisco Mint 1897-1907. Recollections of a newspaperman 1917 begins as Leach and his mother leave Cayuga County New York to rejoin the boy's father in California where the elder Leach had set up a bottling plant in Sacramento. Leach recalls his boyhood there and in Napa where the family moved in 1857. He tells of experiences as a printer and newspaper publisher in Napa, Vallejo and Oakland. Other topics are a rail trip east in 1875, mining speculations, a term in the state legislature, Republican Party politics, ranching, railroad strikes and his campaign against Oakland bosses and the rail interests. Highlights of his years after journalism are his work at the mint and the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906.
