We Just Moved:

We Just Moved! Stephen Krensky, 1998-06 A boy is excited about moving into a new castle in medieval times Ava's Big Move Mary Van Reyk, 2017-09-12 Join the girls as they take on the world one wave at a time Meet five very different girls with one thing in common they've caught the surfing bug Ava has grown up in a big city But everything changes when her parents decide on a sea change they're moving to the small town of Beachcrest to open a cafe Ava will be starting high school that year and now she has to say goodbye to her life in the city Her new school is very different and Ava misses her friends When she hears that surfing is going to be offered as a sport for the first time Ava uses her snowboard skills to give it a try Not everyone thinks she can become a surfer but Ava is determined to prove them wrong and she's making new friends along the way Ava Alex Bronte Janani and Molly form the Surf Riders Club to help each other practise but it quickly becomes much more than that Whether it's learning how to get barrelled problem parents or annoying boys the Surf Riders Club are there for each other no matter what Officially endorsed by Surfing Australia and includes a special message from Tyler Wright 2016 WSL Women's World Surfing Champion Priced Out Rachael A. Woldoff, Lisa M. Morrison, Michael R. Glass, 2016-03-15 On an average morning in Manhattan's Stuyvesant Town housing development birds chirp as early risers dash off to work elderly residents enjoy a peaceful morning stroll and flocks of parents usher their children to school It seems an unlikely location for conflict and strife yet this eighteen block area initially planned as middle class affordable housing is the site of an ongoing struggle between long term rent regulated residents and newer market rate tenants Priced Out takes readers into this heated battle as a transitioning neighborhood wrestles with contemporary capitalist strategies and the struggle to preserve renters rights Attempting to replace longtime residents with younger more affluent tenants Stuyvesant Town's owners have disrupted native residents sense of place community and perceived quality of life Through interviews with residents the authors offer an intimate view into the lives of different groups of tenants involved in this struggle for prime real estate in New York from students experiencing the city for the first time to baby boomers hanging on to the vestiges of middle class urban life to older residents who have lived in Stuyvesant Town since it opened in 1947 A compelling account of changing urban landscapes and the struggle for security Priced Out offers a comprehensive perspective of a community that to some is becoming unrecognizable as it is upgraded and altered Page 4 of cover
