Conflict, Insecurity and Mobility Ibrahim Sirkeci, Jeffrey H. Cohen, Pinar Yazgan, 2016 Theories and models of contemporary migration often revolves around neofunctional models They define migrants as rational actors who are focused on improving their well being which is enabled by access to opportunities that are not available in their origin communities and or countries Nevertheless initiation of migration is largely driven by difficulties discomfort disagreements tensions and conflicts at the origin while migration decision and destination choices are moderated by individual characteristics cultural and social capital as well as by the local national and international context In other words people do not move when they are satisfied and comfortable with what they have and where they are The book s scope covers marginalisation and gangs Kurds in Istanbul Border perception Development security and Frontex Kurdish Diaspora Perspectives on conflicts return of Kurdish villagers young migrants in Istanbul communal violence Military service migration nexus Geyer's Stationer, 1907

Sheppard, 2007-01-01 Neoliberalism s market revolution realized through practices like privatization deregulation fiscal devolution and workfare programs has had a transformative effect on contemporary cities The consequences of market oriented politics for urban life have been widely studied but less attention has been given to how grassroots groups nongovernmental organizations and progressive city administrations are fighting back In case studies written from a variety of theoretical and political perspectives this book examines how struggles around such issues as affordable housing public services and space neighborhood sustainability living wages workers rights fair trade and democratic governance are reshaping urban political geographies in North America and around the world Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music ,1913 Failing Sideways Stephanie West-Puckett,Nicole I. Caswell,William P. Banks,2023-05-15 Failing Sideways is an innovative and fresh approach to assessment that intersects writing studies educational measurement and queer rhetorics While valuing and representing the research theory and practice of assessment authors Stephanie West Puckett Nicole I Caswell and William P Banks demonstrate the ways that students teachers and other interested parties can find joy and justice in the work of assessment A failure oriented assessment model unsettles some of the most common practices like rubrics and portfolios and challenges many deeply held assumptions about validity and reliability in order to ask what could happen if assessment was oriented toward possibility and potential Working to engage a more capacious writing construct the authors propose queer validity inquiry QVI as a model for assessment that values failure affect identity and materiality These overlapping lenses help teachers honor parts of writing and learning that writing studies faculty have struggled to hold onto in a world overly focused on quickness and efficiency in schools Through programmatic and classroom examples Failing Sideways privileges what is valued in the classroom but traditionally ignored in assessments Reimagining what matters in the teaching and learning of writing and using assessment data differently this book demonstrates what writing can be and could do in a more diverse and just world High School Life ,1916 Music News ,1930 The Tribune Tree Bernard Declève,Rosanna Forray,2004 This book is the result of a research action on the conditions of the citizen participation in the policies of urban regeneration in response to a survey ordered by the minister in charge of the policy of the large cities within the Belgian federal government This research action coordinated by the team Habitat and Development of the unit of urbanism and territorial development of the UCL was carried out in partnership with four associated members of the HaCER network Habitants Citoyens d Europe en R seau the Neighbours association of Trinitat Nova Barcelona Spain the Estate Management Board of Bloomsbury Birmingham UK the Stadtleilgruppe of Tenever Bremen Germany the Unione Borgate Rome Italy as well as the Maritime Quarter Committee in Molenbeek St Jean Belgium Beyond these 5 testimonies of participation s experiments research makes it possible to better seize the articulation between the practices and the institutional environment in which the participation evolves As a results a series of proposals are applicable to Belgium Annual Report - Institute for Northern Studies, University of Saskatchewan University of Saskatchewan.
